Though the author of this gospel is unnamed, the early church consistently considered it to be the work of the apostle Matthew (also known as Levi). Though a Jew by birth, his duties as a Roman tax collector would have made fluency in Greek necessary as a complement to his Aramaic. Recent literary critics have argued that the writer of Matthew used Mark as his source. However, the early church, together with many evangelical scholars through the generations, has argued for the priority of Matthew.

The evidence for the date of Matthew is inconclusive. Because the book was written primarily to the Jews, many scholars feel it was written before the fall of Jerusalem in AD 70.

A city along the coast of Phoenicia or Syria, such as Antioch, is generally accepted as the place where Matthew wrote his book (see Mt 17:24,27). Though a Greek-speaking city, Antioch had a large Jewish population. The book does not state specifically where it was written; yet it is probable that it originated somewhere in Rome's Syrian province.

The author sought to show that the Messiah, whom the prophets predicted in the Old Testament, had come in the person of Jesus.

The Gospel of Matthew, though one of four accounts covering the life and ministry of Jesus, was written especially for the Jews, who knew the Old Testament prophecies. The promised kingdom was first offered to them, and they were foremost among those responsible for spreading the Good News.
Literary Characteristics

Matthew is the bridge between the Old Testament and New Testament. It contains more than fifty direct quotations from the Old Testament—more than the other three gospels combined—as well as many other affirming statements such as “you have heard,” “it is written,” and “that which was spoken.” The book is chronologically arranged, yet with a topical structure. Many of Jesus’ teachings, as well as his healings, other miracles and the parables concerning the kingdom, are grouped together.

THEMES

The major theme is that what the Old Testament foretold about the Messiah has been fulfilled in Jesus, and thus the book pays detailed attention to the lineage of Christ (Mt 1). Because the lineage of royalty was important to the Jews, Matthew traced Jesus not only to Abraham, the father of the Jews, but also to the kingly lineage of David.

The book also delineates what a disciple’s life should be. The Sermon on the Mount and related teachings give not only the code of conduct God requires but, more importantly, the quality of the relationship Jesus desired with his disciples. Related to the discipleship theme is the key phrase, “the kingdom of heaven.” This theme encompasses both the daily life of each disciple and the future coming of Christ.

The Genealogy of Jesus the Messiah

1 This is the genealogy of Jesus the Messiah, the son of David, the son of Abraham:

2 Abraham was the father of Isaac, Isaac the father of Jacob, Jacob the father of Judah and his brothers,
3 Judah the father of Perez and Zerah, whose mother was Tamar, Perez the father of Hezron, Hezron the father of Ram,
4 Ram the father of Amminadab, Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,
5 Salmon the father of Boaz, whose mother was Rahab, Boaz the father of Obed, whose mother was Ruth,
6 Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of King David.

David was the father of Solomon, whose mother had been Uriah’s wife,
7 Solomon the father of Rehoboam, Rehoboam the father of Abijah, Abijah the father of Asa,
8 Asa the father of Jehoshaphat, Jehoshaphat the father of Jehoram, Jehoram the father of Uzziah,
9 Uzziah the father of Jotham, Jotham the father of Ahaz, Ahaz the father of Hezekiah,
10 Hezekiah the father of Manasseh, Manasseh the father of Amon, Amon the father of Josiah,
11 Josiah the father of Jezekiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

12 After the exile to Babylon:

Jezekiah was the father of Shealtiel, Shealtiel the father of Zerubbabel,
13 Zerubbabel the father of Abihud, Abihud the father of Eliakim, Eliakim the father of Azor,
14 Azor the father of Zadok, Zadok the father of Akim, Akim the father of Eliud,
15 Eliud the father of Eleazar, Eleazar the father of Matthan, Matthan the father of Jacob,
16 and Jacob the father of Joseph, the husband of Mary, and Mary was the mother of Jesus who is called the Messiah.

17 Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Messiah.

Joseph Accepts Jesus as His Son

18 This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah came about: His mother Mary was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they came together, she was found to be pregnant through the Holy Spirit. 19 Because Joseph her husband was faithful to the law, and yet did not want to expose her to public disgrace, he had in mind to divorce her quietly.

20 But after he had considered this, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream and said, “Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is from the Holy Spirit. 21 She will give birth to a son, and you are to give him the name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins.”

22 All this took place to fulfill what the Lord had said through the prophet:

1:1 Or is an account of the origin of Jesus Christ. Messiah (Hebrew) and Christ (Greek) both mean Anointed One; also in verse 18. 11 That is, Jehoiachin; also in verse 12. 18 Or The origin of Jesus the Messiah was like this. 19 Or was a righteous man and 21 Or Jesus is the Greek form of Joshua, which means the Lord saves.
Magi from the east came to Jerusalem and asked, “Where is the one who has been born king of the Jews? We saw his star when it rose and have come to worship him.”

When King Herod heard this he was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him.

When he had called together all the people’s chief priests and teachers of the law, he asked them where the Messiah was to be born.

“In Bethlehem in Judea,” they replied, “for this is what the prophet has written:

“The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and they will call him Immanu’el” (which means “God with us”).

When Joseph woke up, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him and took Mary home as his wife. But he did not consummate their marriage until she gave birth to a son. And he gave him the name Jesus.

After Jesus was born in Bethlehem in Judea, during the time of King Herod, saves); Christ (Gk. christos) or Messiah (Heb. mashiach) is his title, meaning “anointed one.” The royal lineage of Jesus is through Mary, the mother who gave him birth, and her husband Joseph, who was Jesus’ legal father (v. 20). Most important, Jesus was God’s eternal Son (see Mt 2:15).

1:23 The process of naming in Biblical times was important in expressing the character and work of the person named (see Isa 45, Naming of Children).

2:1 The account of the Magi is found only in Matthew, the book that presents Jesus as the Jewish King. The “magi” (Gk. magoi) were magicians or astrologers. They probably came from Persia or Babylon (where wise men were part of the priestly order). Historians had predicted a world ruler from Judea at this time. The belief that a phenomenon of stars announced special births was widely held. The names of the magi are not given, but three gifts are mentioned: gold, associated with royalty; frankincense, a costly incense; and myrrh, a prized perfume (v. 11). These men viewed the phenomenon of stars at the time of Jesus’ birth in a distant land, and they could have taken up to two years to reach Judea. The wise men came to the house, not the stable (v. 11), and saw the Child, not the baby (vv. 9,11).

2:3–4 The chief priests and teachers of the law were the ones who had supposedly been watching for this event for hundreds of years. Teachers of the law practiced the highly prized skill of writing and specialized in copying official records, Scripture, and commentaries on Scripture. They had developed additional laws and traditions first to explain Scripture and ultimately to be obeyed as Scripture. For them, Jesus did not qualify as the Messiah because he did not fit these new laws and traditions. They were numbered among the chief opponents to the One about whom Scripture spoke (see Mt 23:1–39; 26:57; 27:17–26,39–43).

2:5–6 Bethlehem is the place where Ruth (the great grandmother of David) met Boaz (Ru 1:22—2:6) and where David was born and reared (1Sa 16:1—2:6). This small hamlet is within walking distance of Jerusalem, less than ten miles away.

Herod the Great built the temple in Jerusalem and also completed various palaces and numerous public works projects. His love for power and heavy taxation pleased Rome but alienated the Jews. A man of terrible paranoia, he did not hesitate to eliminate anyone who might threaten his position (see chart, The Family Tree of Herod the Great). Slaughtering a group of Jewish toddlers in a small town would have been typical of Herod.

The Escape to Egypt

When they had gone, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream. “Get up,” he said, “take the child and his mother and escape to Egypt. Stay there until I tell you, for Herod is going to search for the child to kill him.”

So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night and left for Egypt, where he stayed until the death of Herod. And so was fulfilled what the Lord had said through the prophet: “Out of Egypt I called my son.”

When Herod realized that he had been outwitted by the Magi, he was furious, and he gave orders to kill all the boys in Bethlehem... and its vicinity who were two years old and under, in accordance with the time he had learned from the Magi. 17 Then what was said through the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled:

18 “A voice is heard in Ramah, weeping and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more.”

The Return to Nazareth

19 After Herod died, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt 20 and said, “Get up, take the child and his mother and go to the land of Israel, for those who were trying to take the child’s life are dead.” 21 So he got up, took the child and his mother and went to the land of Israel. 22 But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. Having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee, 23 and he went and lived in a town called Nazareth. So was fulfilled what was said through the prophets, that he would be called a Nazarene.

John the Baptist Prepares the Way

3 In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea and saying, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.” 3 This is he who was spoken of through the prophet Isaiah:

“A voice of one calling in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way for the Lord, make straight paths for him.’”

4 John’s clothes were made of camel’s hair, and he had a leather belt around his waist.

His food was locusts and wild honey. 5 People went out to him from Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan. 6 Confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan River.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to where he was baptizing, he said to them: “You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? 8 Produce fruit in keeping with repentance. 9 And do not think you can say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. 10 The ax is already at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

11“I baptize you with water for repentance. But after me comes one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to carry. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire. 12 His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear his threshing floor, gathering his wheat into the barn and burning up the chaff with unquenchable fire.”

The Baptism of Jesus

13 Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to be baptized by John. 14 But John tried to deter him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?” 15 Jesus replied, “Let it be so now; it is proper for us to do this to fulfill all righteousness.” Then John consented.

16 As soon as Jesus was baptized, he went up out of the water. At that moment heaven was opened.
opened, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased.”

Jesus Is Tested in the Wilderness

Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. After fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. The tempter came to him and said, “If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread.”

Jesus answered, “It is written: ‘Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.’”

Then the devil took him to the holy city and had him stand on the highest point of the temple. “If you are the Son of God,” he said, “throw yourself down. For it is written: ‘He will command his angels concerning you, and they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.’”

Jesus answered him, “It is also written: ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’”

Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor. “All this I will give you,” he said, “if you will bow down and worship me.”

Jesus said to him, “Away from me, Satan! For it is written: ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve him only.’”

Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him.

Jesus Begins to Preach

When Jesus heard that John had been put in prison, he withdrew to Galilee. Leaving Nazareth, he went and lived in Capernaum, which was by the lake in the area of Zebulun and Naphtali— to fulfill what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

“Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the Way of the Sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles— the people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death a light has dawned.”

From that time on Jesus began to preach, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

Jesus Calls His First Disciples

As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. “Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will send you out to fish for people.” At once they left their nets and followed him.

Going on from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee, preparing their nets. Jesus called them, and immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Jesus Heals the Sick

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. News about him spread all over Syria, and people set forth his redemptive mission. The triune God is presented: Jesus is the Son in the flesh; the Holy Spirit appears in the form of a dove; the Father makes his voice heard from heaven (see Mark 1:10–11, note).

4:1–2 The Spirit was responsible for both the encounter and the 40-day fast. The Biblical concept of “tempting” is a testing to demonstrate genuineness, faithfulness, and character (see Hebrews 2, Temptation). Jesus did not pretend to be tempted; his temptation was real. These temptations affirmed his qualification to be God’s Messiah and our Redeemer.

4:3 All references to the tempter are personal, establishing beyond doubt that Satan is not just an evil influence but a person (see chart, A Portrait of the Adversary).

4:3–10 Jesus’ defense consisted of two things:

- Scripture—The first words of Jesus as he entered his public ministry were, “It is written” (v. 4).
- Immediate obedience.

These same weapons are available to believers. Satan did not attempt to argue with Scripture. Jesus eventually received from the Father all Satan had offered to him: the provision of bread (Matthew 14:13–21), angels to minister to him (Matthew 4:11) and rule over both earth and heaven (Matthew 28:18).

4:11 Though Satan finally departed, this occasion was not the sum of Jesus’ earthly temptations. Jesus was tempted many other times (Matthew 26:38; Mark 8:33; Luke 22:28; John 6:15; 7:1–9; Hebrews 2:18; 4:15–16).
brought to him all who were ill with various diseases, those suffering severe pain, the demon-possessed, those having seizures, and the paralyzed; and he healed them. Large crowds from Galilee, the Decapolis, Jerusalem, Judea and the region across the Jordan followed him.

Introduction to the Sermon on the Mount

Now when Jesus saw the crowds, he went up on a mountainside and sat down. His disciples came to him, and he began to teach them.

The Beatitudes

He said:

3 “Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
5 Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
8 Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.
10 Blessed are those who are persecuted because of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 “Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil against you because of me. Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven.

Salt and Light

13 “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot.
14 “You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house. 16 In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven.

The Fulfillment of the Law

17 “Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth disappear, not the smallest letter, not the least stroke of a pen, will by any means disappear from the Law until everything is accomplished. Therefore anyone who sets aside one of the least of these commands and teaches others accordingly will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices them evil.

5:1—7:29 The Sermon on the Mount is the first in a series of five discourses about the Christian life, both present and future. Its basic premise is that the Christian life has no neutral zones free from God. The Lord is sovereign, all-powerful, and omnipresent (see Job 23:42; Jer 23, Attributes of God). Believers do not make him the Sovereign or Lord of their lives; he already is. Whether or not they are living as his subjects does not affect his sovereignty; their obedience or lack of it simply determines what kind of kingdom subjects they are.

5:3—12 Beatitudes are found elsewhere in Scripture, most often in the Psalms, though there are usually no more than two or three together (see chart, Beatitudes in the Book of Revelation). The distinctiveness of these Beatitudes is that they are directly related to the kingdom of heaven, and the blessings promised are due to the presence and activity of Jesus (see chart, Beatitudes for Women).

5:13–16 Both salt and light are forces that change an alien environment permanently. Salt enhances flavor and preserves or slows decay only if the salt itself stays pure. Sodium chloride, a stable compound, cannot lose its saltiness, but it can lose its effectiveness by being diluted. This point is the application for Christians. Light symbolizes purity and divine revelation. If Christians were only slowing the decay, their mission would seem rather bleak, but they are also to be beacons of light to those who will respond.

5:17 The Law and the Prophets refers to the OT. Jesus is the subject and the goal of the OT and the fulfillment of its prophecies (Mt 1:22; 2:6,15,17–18,23; 3:3; 4:14–16).

25 That is, the Ten Cities
Matthew 5:21–43

Jesus repudiated wrong thoughts and attitudes with astounding severity. “Raca” (Aram., lit. “empty headed”) was a term of dehumanization (v. 22). “Fool” (Gk. moros) may also be understood as “rebel.” Jesus identified wrong attitudes as triggering other sins (vv. 21–22). A woman’s personal relationships directly affect her relationship (though not her position) with God (see Mt 6:14–15).

MATTHEW 5:26

AN AWESOME CHALLENGE

The question of remarriage is closely related to the matter of divorce. The Scripture lifts up permanent, monogamous union as the plan of the Creator (Mt 19:4–6). To understand the strong language of Scripture concerning this matter, look at the whole of Scripture to see how God regards marriage. The marriage bond between husband and wife is the same kinship bond that exists between parents and children and between God and his creation (Ge 2:24; Mt 19:6).

Some argue that remarriage is never permissible (Mk 10:11–12). Others note that the divorce teaching of Jesus includes an “exception” (Mt 5:32; 19:9) and conclude that this implies permission to remarry. Still others suggest that the understood meaning of “divorce” in ancient law included freedom to remarry, suggesting that remarriage is forbidden only after an invalid divorce. Finally, there are those who deny that Jesus gives a justification for divorce in the modern sense, although they allow that remarriage is permissible if reconciliation with a divorced spouse is rendered impossible because of death or remarriage of the divorced spouse to another partner (1Co 7:10–11), or if the divorced spouse is a nonbeliever opposed to reconciliation (1Co 7:15).

Despite these differences of Biblical interpretation, some important conclusions can be drawn:

• Once remarriage follows divorce, there is no turning back (Dt 24:1–4), and the tearing apart of a marriage is painful, leaving its scars on all who are touched by the tragedy.

• God sees the one-flesh relationship as permanent and binding because it is the picture he has chosen to portray his relationship to his children, and thus he guards the home with great zeal (Mal 2:16).

• Jesus gives no divine directive or even acceptable excuses for breaking this holy covenant but rather observes that the hardness of the human heart makes such tragedy a reality in this sinful world (Mt 19:8).

• The role of the church and of believers must always be redemptive. With God, forgiveness is as if it never happened. No sin or tragedy is beyond God’s forgiveness.

After seeking and receiving God’s forgiveness, a woman who remarries has a new understanding of God’s incredible grace. She must then seek anew an understanding of God’s plan for marriage (Ge 2:24), commit herself wholeheartedly to pursuing his plan, and consider her vows of marriage binding before the Lord (Mt 19:5–6).

Adultery

27“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman lustfully has already committed adultery with her in his heart. 28If your right eye causes you to stumble, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to be thrown into hell. 29And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away. divorce.\textsuperscript{a} \textsuperscript{32}But I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, makes her the victim of adultery, and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

\textbf{Oaths}

\textsuperscript{33}“Again, you have heard that it was said to the people long ago, ‘Do not break your oath, but fulfill to the Lord the vows you have made.’ \textsuperscript{34}But I tell you, do not swear an oath at all: either by heaven, for it is God’s throne; \textsuperscript{35}or by the earth, for it is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, for it is the city of the Great King. \textsuperscript{36}And do not swear by your head, for you cannot make even one hair white or black. \textsuperscript{37}All you need to say is simply ‘Yes’ or ‘No’; anything beyond this comes from the evil one.\textsuperscript{b}

\textbf{Eye for Eye}

\textsuperscript{38}“You have heard that it was said, ‘Eye for eye, and tooth for tooth.’ \textsuperscript{c} \textsuperscript{39}But I tell you, do not resist an evil person. If anyone slaps you on the right cheek, turn to them the other cheek also. \textsuperscript{40}And if anyone wants to sue you and take your shirt, hand over your coat as well. \textsuperscript{41}If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with them two miles. \textsuperscript{42}Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

\textbf{Love for Enemies}

\textsuperscript{43}“You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor\textsuperscript{d} and hate your enemy.’ \textsuperscript{44}But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, \textsuperscript{45}that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. \textsuperscript{46}If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that? \textsuperscript{47}And if you greet only your own people, what are you doing more than others? Do not even pagans do that? \textsuperscript{48}Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.

\textbf{Giving to the Needy}

\textsuperscript{6}“Be careful not to practice your righteousness in front of others to be seen by them. If you do, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

\textsuperscript{2}“So when you give to the needy, do not announce it with trumpets, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and on the streets, to be honored by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. \textsuperscript{3}But when you give to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, \textsuperscript{4}so that your giving may be in secret. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

\textbf{Prayer}

\textsuperscript{5}“And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. \textsuperscript{6}But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. \textsuperscript{7}And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. \textsuperscript{8}Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him. \textsuperscript{9}“This, then, is how you should pray:

This model teaches the manner and method of prayer and shares matters for which to pray.

"Our Father in heaven" (Mt 6:9) seeks and expresses recognition of God as the Father of all in heaven and on earth. "Hallowed be your name" (Mt 6:9) expresses reverence and the desire for God to be honored and praised in His creation. "Your kingdom come/your will be done" (Mt 6:10) expresses the desire for God's Kingdom to be present and His will to be done. "Give us today our daily bread" (Mt 6:11) asks for daily sustenance and the need to live day to day. "And forgive us our debts" (Mt 6:12) asks for forgiveness of our failures and shortcomings. "And lead us not into temptation" (Mt 6:13) asks for protection from the evil of temptation.

Prepare
- Pure heart and motive (Mt 6:5–8).
- Private conversation intent on invoking His presence (Mt 6:6).
- Meaningful communication (Mt 6:7–8; Lk 18:1–8).
- Presentation of specific requests (Mt 6:9–13; see 1Sa 12:23–24).

Pray
- "Our Father in heaven" (Mt 6:9).
- "Hallowed be your name" (Mt 6:9).
- "Your kingdom come/your will be done" (Mt 6:10).
- "Give us today our daily bread" (Mt 6:11).
- "And forgive us our debts" (Mt 6:12).
- "And lead us not into temptation" (Mt 6:13).

Fasting
- "When you fast, do not look somber as the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces" (Mt 6:16).
- "For if you forgive other people when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive others their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins." (Mt 6:14–15)

6:16–18 Fasting (v. 18), together with prayer (v. 6) and good deeds (v. 2), are outworkings of the Christian life that are exclusively between the believer and God. Fasting (Heb. tsum, lit. “to cover over”—as the mouth; Gk. nesteia, lit. “to abstain from food”) could be observed completely for a short time or from certain foods for a longer period (Da 10:3). The ancient Israelites practiced fasting on the Day of Atonement (Lev 16:29–31; 23:27–32, in which “deny yourselves” is a reference to fasting). At various other times fasting was practiced as a sign of mourning (1Sa 31:13; Est 4:1–3), as an act of personal or corporate repentance (1Sa 7:6; Da 9:3–19), as a means of gaining God’s attention on behalf of suffering or sickness (2Sa 12:16–23), in a critical time of decision making (2Ch 20:1–18; Est 4:16; 1Co 7:5) or as the natural result of urgent prayer (2Co 6:5; 11:27). Jesus assumed that his disciples would fast. He himself fasted for 40 days to prepare for his ministry and to fortify his soul for his confrontation with Satan (Mt 4:1–2). He affirmed fasting as an accompaniment to times of intense prayer (Mt 17:21). Early Christians fasted as an accompaniment to major events (Ac 13:2–3; 14:23). The purpose of a spiritual fast is... faces to show others they are fasting. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. 17But when you fast, put oil on your head and wash your face, 18so that it will not be obvious to others that you are fasting, but only to your Father, who is unseen; and your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you.

Treasures in Heaven

19“Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. 20But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

22“The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are healthy, 2 your whole body will be full of light. 23But if your eyes are unhealthy, 3 your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

24“No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.

Do Not Worry

25“Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink; or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothes? 26Look at the birds of the air; they do not sow or reap or store away in barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not much more valuable than they?

27Can any one of you by worrying add a single hour to your life?

28“ ‘And why do you worry about clothes? See how the flowers of the field grow. They do not labor or spin. 29Yet I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. 30If that is how God clothes the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow is thrown into the fire, will he not much more clothe you — you of little faith? 31So do not worry, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’ 32For the pagans run after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them. 33But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. 34Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.

Judging Others

7 “Do not judge, or you too will be judged. 2For in the same way you judge others, you will be judged, and with the measure you use, it will be measured to you.

3“Why do you look at the speck of sawdust in your brother’s eye and pay no attention to the plank in your own eye? 4How can you say to your brother, ‘Let me take the speck out of your eye,’ when all the time there is a plank in your own eye? 5You hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck from your brother’s eye.

6“Do not give dogs what is sacred; do not throw your pearls to pigs. If you do, they may 10:30–33. The Bible repeatedly cautions that true fasting is not merely abstinence from food (Mt 9:14–15). Fasting must be accompanied by sincere repentance and good works (Isa 58:3–7) and must never be done to impress others, as mere ritualism or as a source of spiritual pride (Lk 18:10–14; see also Da 2:23, note; Lk 24:47, note; Jer 33; Heb 4:1; Jn 5:3; John, Prayer; Eph 6, Spiritual Warfare; Est 2, Esther).

6:24 One must choose between two options: a relationship with God or with possessions (see vv. 19–21).

6:25 Worry has the connotation of dividing, separating and distracting. A woman cannot worry and trust God at the same time because worry destroys the single-hearted devotion Jesus described (v. 33).

7:1–6 Judge (Gk. kríno) here has the sense of “condemn” or “avenge.” The reference is not to a legal judgment but to a critical spirit. The foolishness of a judgmental attitude is illustrated in the hyperbole of the speck and the plank (vv. 3–5). Jesus also used the term “hypocrite” (Gk., lit. “to judge under”) to describe the insincerity of the Pharisees and scribes (see chart, Jewish Sects). Though a critical spirit is condemned, discernment enables the believer to confront and restore fellow believers who have erred. Dogs were wild animals, and pigs were the ultimate example of sacrilege for the Jews. They picture all that is vicious, unclean and abominable; they describe committed God-haters, of whom we are to be aware and from whom we are to separate ourselves (vv. 15–20).
Continual prayer is the secret to accomplishment: asking, seeking and knocking. The goal is not a fixed time of prayer but rather a lifestyle in which prayer becomes like the air we breathe. The promise is absolute. Even if the instructions previously given seem impossible to follow, God will give believers the ability to follow them when they abide in him (Jn 15:4–7).

Answered prayer is guaranteed because these prayers are based upon the relationship of the disciples of Jesus with God, who responds to them as Father. Their prayers may not be answered as specifically requested because they do not have the Father’s perspective on what is ultimately best.

your Father in heaven give good gifts to those who ask him! 12 So in everything, do to others what you would have them do to you, for this sums up the Law and the Prophets.

The Narrow and Wide Gates

13 “Enter through the narrow gate. For wide is the gate and broad is the road that leads to destruction, and many enter through it. 14 But small is the gate and narrow the road that leads to life, and only a few find it.

True and False Prophets

15 “Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves. 16 By their fruit you will recognize them. Do people pick grapes from thornbushes, or figs from thistles? 17 Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. 18 A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit. 19 Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. 20 Thus, by their fruit you will recognize them.

True and False Disciples

21 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22 Many will say to me on that day, ‘Lord, Lord,’ and your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?’ Then I will tell them plainly, ‘I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!’

The Wise and Foolish Builders

24 Therefore everyone who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like a wise man who built his house on the rock. 25 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house; yet it did not fall, because it had its foundation on the rock. 26 But everyone who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. 27 The rain came down, the streams rose, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell with a great crash.”

28 When Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at his teaching, 29 because he taught as one who had authority, and not as their teachers of the law.

Jesus Heals a Man With Leprosy

8 When Jesus came down from the mountainside, large crowds followed him. 2 A man with leprosy 3 came and knelt before him and said, “Lord, if you are willing, you can make me clean.” 3 Jesus reached out his hand and touched the man. “I am willing,” he said. “Be clean!” Immediately he was cleansed of his leprosy. 4 Then Jesus said to him, “See that you don’t tell anyone. But go, show yourself to the priest and offer the gift Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

The Faith of the Centurion

5 When Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking for help. 6 “Lord,” he said, “my servant lies at home paralyzed, suffering terribly.” 7 Jesus said to him, “Shall I come and heal him? 8 The centurion replied, “Lord, I do not deserve to have you come under my roof. But just say the word, and my servant will be

7:12 Jesus framed this principle, known as “the Golden Rule,” positively, rather than negatively. By doing so, he included omissions (what should not be done) as well as commissions (what should be done). This epigram expresses the heart of the Christian life.

7:15–20 The criteria for judging or the means for discerning what is truth and what is not is set forth here. These verses might seem in conflict with the admonition to avoid a judgmental spirit (vv. 1–5), but the intervening passage concerning prayer serves as a bridge. Through prayer, believers determine their own faults. Once they deal with themselves, they have access to a clear view of problems in others. Only God is the ultimate Judge (vv. 21–22).

8:2–3 Whether the leprosy of that time is the same as the modern disease is uncertain. The disease was destructive, debilitating and highly infectious. To the Jews, leprosy also was a sign of being cursed (Nu 12:10–12) and resulted in ceremonial defilement (Lev 13:3; 22:4; see Lev 10, Clean vs. Unclean). Jesus again demonstrated his uniqueness by making the unclean clean.

8:5 Centurions were Roman military officers, typically in charge of 100 soldiers, representing the emperor’s authority (see Mk 15:39; Ac 10:27). Usually they pursued military service as a career.
Instead of limiting the kingdom to the physical descendants of Abraham (as the Jews did), Jesus taught that it was open to all. Faith alone would determine a position in God’s family (see Mt 3:9, note).

The Cost of Following Jesus

18When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he gave orders to cross to the other side of the lake. 19Then a teacher of the law came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go.”

20Jesus replied, “Foxes have dens and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head.”

21Another disciple said to him, “Lord, first let me go and bury my father.”

22But Jesus told him, “Follow me, and let the dead bury their own dead.”

Jesus Calms the Storm

23Then he got into the boat and his disciples followed him. 24Suddenly a furious storm came up on the lake, so that the waves swept over the boat. But Jesus was sleeping.

25The disciples went and woke him, saying, “Lord, save us! We’re going to drown!”

8:11–12 Instead of limiting the kingdom to the physical descendants of Abraham (as the Jews did), Jesus taught that faith alone would determine a position in God’s family (see Mt 3:9, note).

28 He replied, “You of little faith, why are you so afraid?” Then he got up and rebuked the winds and the waves, and it was completely calm.

29 The men were amazed and asked, “What kind of man is this? Even the winds and the waves obey him!”

Jesus Restores Two Demon-Possessed Men

28 When he arrived at the other side in the region of the Gadarenes, two demon-possessed men coming from the tombs met him. They were so violent that no one could pass that way. 29 “What do you want with us, Son of God?” they shouted. “Have you come here to torture us before the appointed time?” 30 Some distance from them a large herd of pigs was feeding. 31 The demons begged Jesus, “If you drive us out, send us into the herd of pigs.” 32 He said to them, “Go!” So they came out and went into the pigs, and the whole herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and died in the water. 33 Those tending the pigs ran off, went into the town and reported all this, including what had happened to the demon-possessed men. 34 Then the whole town went out to meet Jesus. And when they saw him, they pleaded with him to leave their region.

Jesus Forgives and Heals a Paralyzed Man

9 Jesus stepped into a boat, crossed over and came to his own town. 2 Some men brought to him a paralyzed man, lying on a mat. When Jesus saw their faith, he said to the man, “Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven.” 3 At this, some of the teachers of the law said to themselves, “This fellow is blaspheming!” 4 Knowing their thoughts, Jesus said,

8:28–34 The region of the Gadarenes lay in the Gentile territory of the Decapolis. This fact explains the presence of pigs, which would have been repulsive to the Jews. Jesus was seeking rest, not ministry. Two men are mentioned here, while only one is cited in the record of the same incident in Mark and Luke. Perhaps Matthew had personal knowledge of a second man, or one man may have been more prominent and thus the only one of two mentioned. Demon possession is to be distinguished from mental or emotional illness. It involves evil spirits who, though unseen, indwell and control individuals and their actions. The demons in these verses spoke and were spoken to, but they were no match for Jesus.
“Why do you entertain evil thoughts in your hearts? 5 Which is easier: to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Get up and walk’? 6 But I want you to know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins.” So he said to the paralyzed man, “Get up, take your mat and go home.” 7 Then the man got up and went home. 8 When the crowd saw this, they were filled with awe; and they praised God, who had given such authority to man.

The Calling of Matthew

9 As Jesus went on from there, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the tax collector’s booth. “Follow me,” he told him, and Matthew got up and followed him.

10 While Jesus was having dinner at Matthew’s house, many tax collectors and sinners came and ate with him and his disciples.

11 When the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, “Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

12 On hearing this, Jesus said, “It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. 13 But go and learn what this means: ‘I desire mercy, not sacrifice.’ 14 For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners.”

— Hosea 6:6
Eating in Biblical times had ramifications beyond physical nourishment or social enjoyment. It could have religious significance when accompanying worship, festivals, and covenant-making. Fasting (or “afflicting” the soul) could also have religious significance such as repentance (Lev 16:29–31), obedience (Joel 2:12), responding to a loss (2Sa 1:12), preparation for a great event (1Sa 7:6) and preparation for communication with God (Dt 9:9; see Mt 6:16–18, note).

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

14 Then John’s disciples came and asked him, “How is it that we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples do not fast?”

15 Jesus answered, “How can the guests of the bridegroom mourn while he is with them? The time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them; then they will fast.

16 “No one sews a patch of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch will pull away from the garment, making the tear worse. 17 Neither do people pour new wine into old wineskins. If they do, the skins will burst; the wine will run out and the wineskins will be ruined. No, they pour new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved.”

Jesus Raises a Dead Girl and Heals a Sick Woman

18 While he was saying this, a synagogue leader came and knelt before him and said, “My daughter has just died. But come and put your hand on her, and she will live.”

19 Jesus got up and went with him, and so did his disciples.

20 Just then a woman who had been subject to bleeding for twelve years came up behind... him and touched the edge of his cloak. 21 She said to herself, “If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed.”

22 Jesus turned and saw her. “Take heart, daughter,” he said, “your faith has healed you.” And the woman was healed at that moment.

23 When Jesus entered the synagogue leader’s house and saw the noisy crowd and people playing pipes, 24 he said, “Go away. The girl is not dead but asleep.” But they laughed at him. 25 After the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took the girl by the hand, and she got up. 26 News of this spread through all that region.

Jesus Heals the Blind and the Mute

27 As Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, calling out, “Have mercy on us, Son of David!”

28 When he had gone indoors, the blind men came to him, and he asked them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” “Yes, Lord,” they replied.

29 Then he touched their eyes and said, “According to your faith let it be done to you”; 30 and their sight was restored. Jesus warned them sternly, “See that no one knows about this.” 31 But they went out and spread the news about him all over that region.

32 While they were going out, a man who was demon-possessed and could not talk was brought to Jesus. 33 And when the demon was driven out, the man who had been mute spoke. 34 The crowd was amazed and said, “Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel.” 35 But the Pharisees said, “It is by the prince of demons that he drives out demons.”

The Workers Are Few

36 Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and healing every disease and sickness. 37 When he saw the crowds, he had compassion on them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. 38 Then he said to his disciples, “The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. 39 Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.”

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

10 Jesus called his twelve disciples to him and gave them authority to drive out impure spirits and to heal every disease and sickness.

3 These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon (who is called Peter) and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; 3 Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddeus; 4 Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, who betrayed him.

5 These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: “Do not go among the Gentiles or enter any town of the Samaritans. 6 Go rather to the lost sheep of Israel. 7 As you go, proclaim this message: ‘The kingdom of heaven has come near.’ 8 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, 9 drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give.

3) Her bleeding was considered unclean, and rabbis were not to touch or to be touched by someone bleeding (Lev 15:25–33).

The other gospels give more details (Mk 5:25–34; Lk 8:43–48). Though the woman was healed when she touched Jesus, she needed an encounter with him. She is the only person Jesus addressed as daughter.

9:25 Peter, James and John were the only ones invited to be at the transfiguration and at the intimate prayer time in Gethsemane. Perhaps this occasion was considered as important because it was the first time Jesus raised someone from the dead. Jesus had shown his power over diseases, physical infirmities, supernatural beings and nature. Here he showed his power over death (see Mk 5, Jairus’s Resurrected Daughter).

9:35 Jesus healed every kind of sickness, not necessarily every case of sickness.

10:1 Jesus’ disciples first learned about him; then he sent them out. In each list of the Twelve, Peter is first and Judas Iscariot is last (see Mk 3:16–19; Lk 6:14–16). These men with such diverse personalities, backgrounds, education and vocations were not the usual choices for a religious movement.
9 “Do not get any gold or silver or copper to take with you in your belts—no bag for the journey or extra shirt or sandals or a staff, for the worker is worth his keep. 11 Whatever town or village you enter, search there for some worthy person and stay at their house until you leave. 12 As you enter the home, give it your greeting. 13 If the home is deserving, let your peace rest on it; if it is not, let your peace return to you. 14 If anyone will not welcome you or listen to your words, leave that home or town and shake the dust off your feet. 15 Truly I tell you, it will be more bearable for Sodom and Gomorrah on the day of judgment than for that town.

16 “I am sending you out like sheep among wolves. Therefore be as shrewd as snakes and as innocent as doves. 17 Be on your guard; you will be handed over to the local councils and be flogged in the synagogues. 18 On my account you will be brought before governors and kings as witnesses to them and to the Gentiles. 19 But when they arrest you, do not worry about what to say or how to say it. At that time you will be given what to say, 20 for it will not be you speaking, but the Spirit of your Father speaking through you.

21 “Brother will betray brother to death, and a father his child; children will rebel against their parents and have them put to death. 22 You will be hated by everyone because of me, but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved. 23 When you are persecuted in one place, flee to another. Truly I tell you, you will not finish going through the towns of Israel before the Son of Man comes.

24 “The student is not above the teacher, nor a servant above his master. 25 It is enough for students to be like their teachers, and servants like their masters. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebul, how much more the members of his household! 26 “So do not be afraid of them, for there is nothing concealed that will not be disclosed, or hidden that will not be made known.

27 What I tell you in the dark, speak in the daylight; what is whispered in your ear, proclaim from the roofs. 28 Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell. 29 Are not two sparrows sold for a penny? Yet not one of them will fall to the ground outside your Father’s care. 30 And even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. 31 So don’t be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

32 “Whoever acknowledges me before others, I will also acknowledge before my Father in heaven. 33 But whoever disowns me before others, I will disown before my Father in heaven.

34 “Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace, but a sword. 35 For I have come to turn ‘a man against his father,’ a daughter against her mother, a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law— 36 a man’s enemies will be the members of his own household. 37 “Anyone who loves his father or mother more than is not worthy of me; anyone who loves their son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 Whoever does not take up their cross and follow me is not worthy of me. 39 Whoever finds their life will lose it, and whoever loses their life for my sake will find it.

10:9–19 Their mission was to be shared by others who would offer them hospitality and support. The worthiness of a person was determined by his response to Jesus (see vv. 37–38). To turn the disciples away meant they were turning away the Messiah, which meant the Messiah would turn away from them (see v. 33). Sodom and Gomorrah pictured the certainty and completeness of God’s judgment.

10:37 God is in a category separate from all else. He does not ask any woman to love her family less. However, even the closest human relationship must not stand between or supersede an individual’s primary loyalty to the Lord (Mt 16:24).

10:39 Sacrifice indicates a deliberate act of bringing a possession to the altar—abdicating all rights, stepping away and leaving it there. Jesus asked his followers to sacrifice financial security (vv. 9–10), personal defense (vv. 19–21), physical safety (vv. 22–31), earthly status (vv. 32–33), family relationships (v. 37), personal agendas (v. 38) and even life itself (v. 39). The rewards promised are great: the meeting of personal needs (Mt 6:30–33); the ability to deliver God’s words (Mt 10:19–20); the Lord’s eternal protection (v. 28); value in the eyes of the Father (v. 31); membership in God’s family (Mt 12:49–50); a role in his agenda (Mt 10:24–26); and genuine life (v. 39).
prophet’s reward, and whoever welcomes a righteous person as a righteous person will receive a righteous person’s reward. 42 And if anyone gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones who is my disciple, truly I tell you, that person will certainly not lose their reward.

Jesus and John the Baptist

11 After Jesus had finished instructing his twelve disciples, he went on from there to teach and preach in the towns of Galilee. 2 When John, who was in prison, heard about the deeds of the Messiah, he sent his disciples 3 to ask him, “Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?”

4 Jesus replied, “Go back and report to John what you hear and see: 5 The blind receive sight, the lame walk, those who have leprosy 6 are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is proclaimed to the poor. 7 Blessed is anyone who does not stumble on account of me.”

7 As John’s disciples were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed swayed by the wind? 8 If not, what did you go out to see? A man dressed in fine clothes? No, those who wear fine clothes are in kings’ palaces. 9 Then what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. 10 This is the one about whom it is written:

“ ‘I will send my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you.’

11 Truly I tell you, among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptist; yet whoever is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. 12 From the days of John the Baptist until now, the kingdom of heaven has been subjected to violence, 13 and violent people have been raiding it. 14 For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. 15 And if you are willing to accept it, he is the Elijah who was to come. 16 Whoever has ears, let them hear.

16 “To what can I compare this generation? They are like children sitting in the marketplaces and calling out to others:

17 “ ‘We played the pipe for you, and you did not dance; we sang a dirge, and you did not mourn.’

18 For John came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’ 19 The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Here is a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners.’ But wisdom is proved right by her deeds.”

Woe on Unrepentant Towns

20 Then Jesus began to denounce the towns in which most of his miracles had been performed, because they did not repent. 21 “Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. 22 But I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. 23 And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to the heavens? No, you will go down to Hades. 24 For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Sodom, it would have remained to this day. 25 But I tell you that it will be more bearable for Sodom on the day of judgment than for you.”

The Father Revealed in the Son

25 At that time Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. 26 Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do. 27 All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father and to be the exclusive Way to the Father (see Jn 14:6).

11:10–11 Although John’s mission was to announce the coming of the Messiah, his understanding was veiled. The disciples who witnessed the crucifixion, the resurrection, the ascension, and the glorification of Jesus had an even greater message to share.

11:25 The kingdom Jesus offered is available and understandable to anyone who is interested. The “wise and learned” were those who were self-sufficient and prided themselves on their great understanding of spiritual things (see Mt 9:12). 11:27 Jesus claimed to have an exclusive relationship with the Father and to be the exclusive Way to the Father (see Jn 10:15; 14:6).
the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

28 "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. 29 Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. 30 For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Jesus Is Lord of the Sabbath

At that time Jesus went through the grain fields on the Sabbath. His disciples were hungry and began to pick some heads of grain and eat them. 2 When the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, "Look! Your disciples are doing what is unlawful on the Sabbath."

3 He answered, "Haven't you read what David did when he and his companions were hungry? 4 He entered the house of God, and he and his companions ate the consecrated bread—which was not lawful for them to do, but only for the priests. 5 Or haven't you read in the Law that the priests on Sabbath duty in the temple desecrate the Sabbath and yet are innocent? 6 I tell you that something greater than the temple is here. 7 If you had known what these words mean, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,' 8 you would not have condemned the innocent. 9 For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath."

9 Going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, 10 and a man with a shriveled hand was there. Looking for a reason to bring charges against Jesus, they asked him, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"

11 He said to them, "If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will you not take hold of it and lift it out? 12 How much more valuable is a person than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath."

13 Then he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out and it was completely restored, just as sound as the other. 14 But the Pharisees went out and plotted how they might kill Jesus.

God's Chosen Servant

15 Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. A large crowd followed him, and he healed all who were ill. 16 He warned them not to tell others about him.

17 This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah:

18 "Here is my servant whom I have chosen, the one I love, in whom I delight; I will put my Spirit on him, and he will proclaim justice to the nations. 19 He will not quarrel or cry out; no one will hear his voice in the streets. 20 A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out, till he has brought justice through to victory. 21 In his name the nations will put their hope."

Jesus and Beelzebul

22 Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him, so that he could both talk and see. 23 All the people were astonished and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

24 But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, "It is only by Beelzebul, the prince

11:28–29 Jesus is the touchstone for everything. Individuals are to "come" and "take" his yoke, and he does the rest. A person who is weary is struggling, and one who is burdened is overloaded. The yoke was a double harness in which two animals pulled together. Often, one harness was larger and meant for the stronger, more experienced animal, while the smaller was used for the animal being trained. The yoke of Jesus clearly implies that even though individuals are free from the law, they are not to make their own rules. Rather, they are to be harnessed to him, living life his way.

12:1–8 The yoke the religious leaders had put on the people is illustrated. The rules God gave concerning the Sabbath were few and to the point. By contrast, the Jewish additions were numerous and detailed. At the heart of this system was an effort to manipulate God. The idea was that if one could keep and enforce all the added rules, God would have no choice but to bless Israel. This religious system was given precedence over everything, including God’s glory and the welfare of his people.
of demons, that this fellow drives out demons.”

Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand. If Satan drives out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? And if I drive out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your people drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. But if it is by the Spirit of God that I drive out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man’s house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can plunder his house.

Whoever is not with me is against me, and whoever does not gather with me scatters. And so I tell you, every kind of sin and slander can be forgiven, but blasphemy against the Spirit will not be forgiven. Anyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven, either in this age or in the age to come.

Make a tree good and its fruit will be good, or make a tree bad and its fruit will be bad, for a tree is recognized by its fruit. You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of. A good man brings good things out of the good stored up in him, and an evil man brings evil things out of the evil stored up in him. But I tell you that everyone will have to give account on the day of judgment for every empty word they have spoken. For by your words you will be acquitted, and by your words you will be condemned.”

The Sign of Jonah

Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the law said to him, “Teacher, we want to see a sign from you.”

He answered, “A wicked and adulterous generation asks for a sign! But none will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of a huge fish, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. The men of Nineveh will stand up at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and now something greater than Jonah is here. The Queen of the South will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it; for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, and now something greater than Solomon is here.

When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, ‘I will return to the house I left.’ When it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation.”

Jesus’ Mother and Brothers

While Jesus was still talking to the crowd, his mother and brothers stood outside, wanting to speak to him. Someone told him, “Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to speak to you.”

He replied to him, “Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?”

Pointing to his denied. However, blasphemy of the Holy Spirit ascribes to Satan what is done by God, and that cannot be forgiven. To be against Jesus in this way requires that the perpetrator know precisely what he is doing and knowingly and willingly credit Satan rather than the Holy Spirit with the work of God. Why would someone do this? Because to admit these miracles were from God would require acknowledging and following Jesus as Messiah, resulting in abandoning his own way (see Isa 53:6).

In the face of miracles, healings and deliverances from demon possession, the Pharisees and scribes wanted yet another “sign.” They were not seeking the truth but were seeking to entrap. As he often did, Jesus gave new meaning to a simple historical event with which his hearers were familiar (Jn 1:17—2:10). The remarkable deliverance of Jonah from the fish after three days was presented as a precursor of Jesus’ death, burial, and his resurrection on the third day (Mt 12:40).

Jesus was not diminishing the importance of family ties, nor was he anything other than caring and courteous in relating to his mother and other family members (see Mt 10:37, note). Rather, he introduced an entirely new category of spiritual commitment. Jesus knew that he must give priority to doing the Father’s will.
disciples, he said, “Here are my mother and my brothers. 50 For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven is my brother and sister and mother.”

The Parable of the Sower

13 That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake. 2 Such large crowds gathered around him that he got into a boat and sat in it, while all the people stood on the shore. 3 Then he told them many things in parables, saying: “A farmer went out to sow his seed. 4 As he was scattering the seed, some fell along the path, and the birds came and ate it up. 5 Some fell on rocky places, where it did not have much soil. It sprang up quickly, because the soil was shallow. 6 But when the sun came up, the plants were scorched, and they withered because they had no root. 7 Other seed fell among thorns, which grew up and choked the plants. 8 Still other seed fell on good soil, where it produced a crop—a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown. 9 Whoever has ears, let them hear.”

10 The disciples came to him and asked, “Why do you speak to the people in parables?”

11 He replied, “Because the knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of heaven has been given to you, but not to them. 12 Whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. 13 This is why I speak to them in parables:

“Though seeing, they do not see; though hearing, they do not hear or understand.

14 In them is fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah:

“ ‘You will be ever hearing but never understanding;
you will be ever seeing but never perceiving.

15 For this people’s heart has become calloused;
they hardly hear with their ears,
and they have closed their eyes.
Otherwise they might see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their hearts
and turn, and I would heal them.’”

16 But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear. 17 For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it.

18 “Listen then to what the parable of the sower means: 19 When anyone hears the message about the kingdom and does not understand it, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in their heart. This is the seed sown along the path. 20 The seed falling on rocky ground refers to someone who hears the word and at once receives it with joy. 21 But since they have no root, they last only a short time. When trouble or persecution comes because of the word, they quickly fall away. 22 The seed falling among the thorns refers to someone who hears the word, but the worries of this life and the deceitfulness of wealth choke the word, making it unfruitful. 23 But the seed falling on good soil refers to someone who hears the word and understands it. This is the one who produces a crop, yielding a hundred, sixty or thirty times what was sown.”

The Parable of the Weeds

24 Jesus told them another parable: “The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed in his field. 25 But while everyone was sleeping, his enemy came and sowed weeds among the wheat, and went away.

13:3 Parables (Gk. parable, lit. “a placing beside”) are simple, short stories in the form of a “type,” “figure,” or “illustration” with two levels of meaning. They present a comparison or contrast in order to stimulate thought, decision and action. Parables are the most difficult yet powerful form of literature to create (see chart, Women and the Parables of Jesus). Their power comes both in the simplicity and brevity of their teaching as well as in the memory tool they provide. Approximately one-third of Jesus’ teaching was done in parables that revealed the nature of the kingdom of God. Here, the first four were given to the general public, and the last four were given to the disciples.

13:3–9 The foundational parable is set apart from the others since it is the key to the rest. The kingdom of God that Jesus offered to the Jews involved their receiving this message. The parable of the soils is a parable of hearing. This parable warned that unless the mind and the heart would hear and accept the Word of God, the teaching of parables would be meaningless. 13:10–15 Jesus’ parables were a teaching method designed to reveal spiritual truths in such a way that those who wanted to respond would understand and receive more (vv. 9,12,43). Those who chose not to respond would not completely understand, and what little understanding they did have would disappear.

2 15 Isaiah 6:9,10 (see Septuagint)
26 When the wheat sprouted and formed heads, then the weeds also appeared.

27 “The owner’s servants came to him and said, ‘Sir, didn’t you sow good seed in your field? Where then did the weeds come from?’

28 “An enemy did this,” he replied.

29 “Do you want us to go and pull them up?”

30 “No,” he answered, ‘because while you are pulling the weeds, you may uproot the wheat with them. 31 Let both grow together until the harvest. At that time I will tell the harvesters: First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles to be burned; then gather the wheat and bring it into my barn.’ ”

The Parables of the Hidden Treasure and the Pearl

44 “The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field. When a man found it, he hid it again, and then in his joy went and sold all he had and bought that field.

45 “Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. 46 When he found one of great value, he went away and sold everything he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

47 “Once again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net that was let down into the lake and caught all kinds of fish. 48 When it was full, the fishermen pulled it up on the shore. Then they sat down and collected the good fish in baskets, but threw the bad away.

49 This is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels will come and separate the wicked from the righteous 50 and throw them into the blazing furnace, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

51 “Have you understood all these things?” Jesus asked.

52 “Yes,” they replied.

53 He said to them, “Therefore every teacher of the law who has become a disciple in the kingdom of heaven is like the owner of a house who brings out of his storeroom new treasures as well as old.”

A Prophet Without Honor

53 When Jesus had finished these parables, he moved on from there. 54 Coming to his hometown, he began teaching the people in their synagogue, and they were amazed.

“Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers?” they asked. 55 Isn’t this the carpenter’s son? Isn’t his mother’s name Mary, and aren’t his brothers James, Joseph, Simon and Judas? 56 Aren’t all his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all these things?”

And they took offense at him.

But Jesus said to them, “A prophet is not
Jesus Walks on the Water

14 At that time Herod the tetrarch heard the reports about Jesus, and he said to his attendants, “This is John the Baptist; he has risen from the dead! That is why miraculous powers are at work in him.”

3Now Herod had arrested John and bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, for John had been saying to him: “It is not lawful for you to have her.” 4Herod wanted to kill John, but he was afraid of the people, because they considered John a prophet.

6On Herod’s birthday the daughter of Herodias danced for the guests and pleased Herod so much that he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked. 7Prompted by her mother, she said, “Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptist.” 8The king was distressed, but because of his oaths and his dinner guests, he ordered that her request be granted and had John beheaded in the prison. 9His head was brought in on a platter and given to the girl, who carried it to her mother. 10John’s disciples came and took his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

13When Jesus heard what had happened, he withdrew by boat privately to a solitary place. Hearing of this, the crowds followed him on foot from the towns. 14When Jesus landed and saw a large crowd, he had compassion on them and healed their sick.

15As evening approached, the disciples came to him and said, “This is a remote place, and it’s already getting late. Send the crowds away, so they can go to the villages and buy themselves some food.” 16Jesus replied, “They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat.” 17“We have here only five loaves of bread and two fish,” they answered. 18“Bring them here to me,” he said. And he directed the people to sit down on the grass. Taking the five loaves and the two fish and looking up to heaven, he gave thanks and broke the loaves. Then he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. 20They all ate and were satisfied, and the disciples picked up twelve basketfuls of broken pieces that were left over. The number of those who ate was about five thousand men, besides women and children.

14:1 Solitude was an important part of Jesus’ life (see Mt 4:1–11; 14:23; Mk 1:35; Lk 4:42; 5:16; Jn 17).

14:13 Solitude was an important part of Jesus’ life (see chart, The Family Tree of Herod the Great). “Herod” was a dynastic title used to describe many different rulers. This family was ruthless with each other as well as with outsiders. No one was safe. Herod the Great, the father of Antipas, had numerous members of his own family put to death, including his favorite wife Mariamne. To have ascended to power in such a family revealed the ruthlessness and ingenuity of Herod Antipas. He helped depose his brother Archelaus, stole his brother Philip’s wife Herodias, and was devoted to whomever had the most power in Rome at the time (see Herodias and Salome).
Then Peter got down out of the boat, walked on the water and came toward Jesus.
30But when he saw the wind, he was afraid and, beginning to sink, cried out, “Lord, save me!”
31Immediately Jesus reached out his hand and caught him. “You of little faith,” he said, “why did you doubt?”
32And when they climbed into the boat, the wind died down.
33Then those who were in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”

15:1–7 The Pharisees’ chief concern was to keep their own traditions, while Jesus’ concern was to do God’s will. The food regulations were a prominent part of the Pharisees’ traditions (see Lev 10, Clean vs. Unclean). Jesus condemned the Pharisees for putting their traditions before God’s commandments and the people’s good. He referred to a practice called “Corban” in...
The Faith of a Canaanite Woman

21Leaving that place, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. 22A Canaanite woman from that vicinity came to him, crying out, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on me! My daughter is demon-possessed and suffering terribly.”

23Jesus did not answer a word. So his disciples came to him and urged him, “Send her away, for she keeps crying out after us.”

24He answered, “I was sent only to the lost sheep of Israel.”

25The woman came and knelt before him. “Lord, help me!” she said.

26He replied, “It is not right to take the children’s bread and toss it to the dogs.”

27“Yes it is, Lord,” she said. “Even the dogs eat the crumbs that fall from their master’s table.”

28Then Jesus said to her, “Woman, you have great faith! Your request is granted.” And her daughter was healed at that moment.

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

29Jesus left there and went along the Sea of Galilee. Then he went up on a mountainside and sat down. 30Great crowds came to him, bringing the lame, the blind, the crippled, the mute and many others, and laid them at his feet; and he healed them. 31The people were amazed when they saw the mute speaking, the crippled made well, the lame walking and the blind seeing. And they praised the God of Israel.

32Jesus called his disciples to him and said, “I have compassion for these people; they have already been with me three days and have nothing to eat. I do not want to send...”

The Canaanites were Israel’s ancient enemies. They were a perverse people who were in the land when Abraham arrived. Because of the atrocities they practiced in their religion, such as temple prostitution and child sacrifice, and because of their refusal to repent and turn to him, God had ordered their destruction (see Nu 33:50–55; Dt 7:1–11). The Jews reserved “Son of David” for the legitimate king of Israel. A Canaanite would not want to recognize such a title.

The feeding of the 4,000 had many similarities to the feeding described in Matthew 14:13–21. The people had been listening to his teaching; they were in a rural area; the tradition of the elders? They don’t wash their hands before they eat!”

3Jesus replied, “And why do you break the command of God for the sake of your tradition? 4For God said, ‘Honor your father and mother’ and ‘Anyone who curses his father or mother is to be put to death.’ 5But you say that if anyone declares that what might have been used to help their father or mother is ‘devoted to God,’ they are not to ‘honor their father or mother’ with it. Thus you nullify the word of God for the sake of your tradition. 6You hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he prophesied about you:

8 “These people honor me with their lips, but their hearts are far from me.

9They worship me in vain; their teachings are merely human rules.”

10Jesus called the crowd to him and said, “Listen and understand. 11What goes into someone’s mouth does not defile them, but what comes out of their mouth, that is what defiles them.”

12Then the disciples came to him and asked, “Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this?”

13He replied, “Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be pulled up by the roots. 14Leave them; they are blind guides. 15If the blind lead the blind, both will fall into a pit.”

16Peter said, “Explain the parable to us.”

17“Don’t you see that whatever enters the mouth goes into the stomach and then out of the body? 18But the things that come out of a person’s mouth come from the heart, and these defile them. 19For out of the heart come evil thoughts — murder, adultery, sexual immorality, theft, false testimony, slander. 20These are what defile a person; but eating with unwashed hands does not defile them.”
food was the same; Jesus blessed and broke it; the disciples served it. But there are also marked differences: The number of pieces that were left over. \(^{38}\) The number of those who ate was four thousand men, besides women and children. \(^{39}\) After Jesus had sent the crowd away, he got into the boat and went to the vicinity of Magadan.

The Demand for a Sign

16 The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus and tested him by asking him to show them a sign from heaven.

\(^{2}\) He replied, “When evening comes, you say, ‘It will be fair weather, for the sky is red,’ \(^{3}\) and in the morning, ‘Today it will be stormy, for the sky is red and overcast.’ You know how to interpret the appearance of the sky, but you cannot interpret the signs of the people; the time they spent with him; the different seashore; the initial amount of food; the amount left over.

Canaanite Woman

A mother’s heart is one of the most potent motivators known. A Canaanite woman exhibited this during one of Jesus’ teaching tours. We do not know her name, but we do know this mother had insight, courage, persistence and initiative.

Obviously, Jesus’ reputation had reached beyond Palestine. Most likely his healing ministry had made the news in Tyre and Sidon, but few would cross cultural and religious lines to approach him. This woman was one of the few. What motivated her to take such initiative on her own? Her mother’s heart.

There were at least three barriers that could have discouraged her from accomplishing her task: She was a Gentile (Mt 15:24); she was a Canaanite (see v. 22, note); and she was a woman (Jn 4:27). But the magnitude of a mother’s love pulled her as irresistibly as the moon pulls the tides.

This mother used a threefold approach: She acknowledged Jesus as the rightful King by calling him “Son of David” (see Mt 15:22, note); she acknowledged him as her King and Master by calling him Lord; and she prayed the simple prayer, “Have mercy on me” (v. 22), “help me” (v. 25). These expressions are irresistible to God.

Her persistence during this brief encounter with Jesus revealed not only a mother’s determination but also her growing faith. Notice: It was not her love for her daughter that impressed him the most (though that surely pleased him) but her great faith (v. 28).

There is an uncanny parallel between this woman and Rahab in the Old Testament (Jos 2). Both women came from the hopelessly perverted Canaanites; both showed a strong love for family; both showed courage, persistence and boldness by stepping away from their religious backgrounds on their own; both evaluated Israel’s God and found him superior to their gods (in fact, they gave Yahweh more credit than the Israelites did); both made a commitment to Israel’s God; and both received what they were seeking.

God has a special understanding for the mother’s heart ( Isa 49:15; 66:12–13; Lk 13:34). More than anything else we remember this woman’s persistent, even obstinate, faith. She would not give up.

times. A wicked and adulterous generation looks for a sign, but none will be given it except the sign of Jonah.” Jesus then left them and went away.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees

5 When they went across the lake, the disciples forgot to take bread. 6 “Be careful,” Jesus said to them. “Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.”

7 They discussed this among themselves and said, “It is because we didn’t bring any bread.”

8 Aware of their discussion, Jesus asked, “You of little faith, why are you talking among yourselves about having no bread? 9 Do you still not understand? Don’t you remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered? 10 Or the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basketfuls you gathered? 11 How is it you don’t understand that I was not talking to you about bread? But be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees.” 12 Then they understood that he was not telling them to guard against the yeast used in bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter Declares That Jesus Is the Messiah

13 When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, “Who do people say the Son of Man is?”

14 They replied, “Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

16:15 “But what about you?” he asked. “Who do you say I am?”

16 Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”

17 Jesus replied, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, for this was not revealed to you by flesh and blood, but by my Father in heaven.

18 And I tell you that you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not overcome it. 19 I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.” Then he ordered his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

Jesus Predicts His Death

21 From that time on Jesus began to explain to his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things at the hands of the elders, the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and that he must be killed and on the third day be raised to life.

22 Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. “Never, Lord!” he said. “This shall never happen to you!”

23 Jesus turned and said to Peter, “Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me; you do not have in mind the concerns of God, but merely human concerns.”

24 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Whoever wants to be my disciple must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me.”

16:5–12 Leaven or yeast was a small substance that permeated the entire product (see Lk 12:1, note).

16:16 Peter declared that Jesus was not one among many—he was someone set apart from all others. The Jews had been waiting for the promised Messiah. “Son of the living God” was a new title. In the OT, divine sonship referred to angels (as special messengers of God), to Israel (as a nation elected to perform the service of God) or to a king (one who had been given authority by God over Israel and other nations). Peter not only affirmed Jesus to be the Messiah; he identified the Messiah as the Son of God. Though the disciples had heard the Father call Jesus his beloved Son (Mt 3:17) and had heard Jesus address God as Father numerous times (Mt 11:27), this confession went beyond that to express the understanding of their hearts.

16:18 Simon was Peter’s given name; he was the son (Aramaic, bar) of Jonah (v. 17). The two words for “rock” differ: “You are Peter” (Gk. petros, lit. “a small stone”) and “on this rock” (Gk. petra, lit. “a massive rock”). There are three possible interpretations:

1) If Jesus were speaking in Aramaic and both references were Cephas, Peter is identified as the “rock”;

2) Peter is the “small rock” (Gk. petros), and Jesus is the “massive boulder” (Gk. petra) upon whom the church is built (see 1Co 3:11); or

3) Peter is addressed, and his confession is the petra or “rock” on which the church would be built.

Hades (Gk., lit. “the place of the dead”) was often used as an idiom for the powers of death. Jesus’ point is that death itself cannot destroy the church or keep it from going forward.

16:19 The binding and loosing is a reference to the distribution of the gospel. Peter and all believers were given the gospel (“the keys of the kingdom”) to introduce women and men to Christ and his salvation and thereby build the church (see Mt 28:19–20).

16:22–23 Peter was unwittingly doing the same thing Satan tried to do in the wilderness temptation—urging Jesus to act on his own apart from the Father. Jesus’ words did not fit Peter’s agenda, just as his words and deeds did not fit the agenda of the Pharisees, scribes and Sadducees. Jesus had only one purpose—to do the Father’s will (Php 2:8; Heb 10:7).
16:28 Three major interpretations are suggested:
1) the coming of Christ in judgment to destroy the temple in AD 70;
2) a reference to Jesus’ resurrection, ascension and the sending of the Holy Spirit to indwell believers;
3) a pointing to the transfiguration in which three of these men would see Jesus in his glorified state.

The latter seems most likely because of the proximity of the transfiguration account (Mt 17:1–5).

17:1 The transfiguration took place within a week of Christ’s prediction that he would die. The three disciples included were the ones he allowed to witness the raising of Jairus’s daughter (Mk 5:37); they later would accompany him to the Garden of Gethsemane (Mk 14:33). Though tradition long held this “high mountain” to be Mount Tabor, there is no record that Jesus was near Mount Tabor at this time. In addition, archaeological excavations discovered here a fortified city dating to this time, which would have made it difficult for them to have been in seclusion. Mount Hermon seems a more likely place.

Three events took place: Jesus’ body was transfigured (v. 2); Moses, the giver of the Law and deliverer from bondage in Egypt, and Elijah, the forerunner of John the Baptist and representative of the prophets in the OT, appeared (v. 3); and God spoke from a cloud (v. 5).
his clothes became as white as the light. 3) Just then there appeared before them Moses and Elijah, talking with Jesus.

4) Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you wish, I will put up three shelters—one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.”

5) While he was still speaking, a bright cloud covered them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, whom I love; with him I am well pleased. Listen to him!”

6) When the disciples heard this, they fell face down to the ground, terrified. 7) But Jesus came and touched them. “Get up,” he said. “Don’t be afraid.” 8) When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus.

9) As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus instructed them, “Don’t tell anyone what you have seen, until the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

10) The disciples asked him, “Why then do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come first?”

11) Jesus replied, “To be sure, Elijah comes and will restore all things. 12) But I tell you, Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but have done to him everything they wished. In the same way the Son of Man is going to suffer at their hands.” Then the disciples understood that he was talking to them about John the Baptist.

Jesus Heals a Demon-Possessed Boy

14) When they came to the crowd, a man approached Jesus and knelt before him. 15) “Lord, have mercy on my son,” he said. “He has seizures and is suffering greatly. He often falls into the fire or into the water. 16) I brought him to your disciples, but they could not heal him.”

17) “You unbelieving and perverse generation,” Jesus replied, “how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me.” 18) Jesus rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed at that moment.

19) Then the disciples came to Jesus in private and asked, “Why couldn’t we drive it out?”

20) He replied, “Because you have so little faith. Truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you.” [21]

Jesus Predicts His Death a Second Time

22) When they came together in Galilee, he said to them, “The Son of Man is going to be delivered into the hands of men. 23) They will kill him, and on the third day he will be raised to life.” And the disciples were filled with grief.

The Temple Tax

24) After Jesus and his disciples arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two-drachma temple tax came to Peter and asked, “Doesn’t your teacher pay the temple tax?”

25) “Yes, he does,” he replied. When Peter came into the house, Jesus was the first to speak. “What do you think, Simon?” he asked. “From whom do the kings of the earth collect duty and taxes—from their own children or from others?”

26) “From others,” Peter answered. “Then the children are exempt,” Jesus said to him. 27) “But so that we may not cause offense, go to the lake and throw out your line. Take the first fish you catch; open its mouth and you will find a four-drachma coin. Take it and give it to them for my tax and yours.”

The Greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven

18) At that time the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Who, then, is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?”

2) He called a little child to him, and placed point of commitment to Jesus. Everything hinged on who he was to them. In fact, he had recently challenged them with this question (Mt 16:15). They needed to be prepared for what would seem to be defeat—the cross.

17:24–27 The tax in question was not a Roman tax but a Jewish temple tax that paid for the care of the temple (see Ex 30:12–14; 38:26; 2Ch 24:6).

17:5 At Jesus’ baptism the disciples heard God saying the same thing (Mt 3:17). The message is repeated near the end of his ministry: God is still pleased with his Son. This time the admonition “Listen to him” was added, but they still were not listening.

17:9 The message must have been confusing. The transfiguration was not for the masses but for his followers. The timing of this event was important. The disciples were at the crucial the child among them. 3And he said: “Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. 4Therefore, whoever takes the lowly position of this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. 5And whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me.

Causing to Stumble

6“If anyone causes one of these little ones — those who believe in me — to stumble, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and to be drowned in the depths of the sea. 7Woe to the world because of the things that cause people to stumble! Such things must come, but woe to the person through whom they come! 8If your hand or your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire. 9And if your eye causes you to stumble, gouge it out and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life with one eye than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

The Parable of the Wandering Sheep

10“See that you do not despise one of these little ones. For I tell you that their angels in heaven always see the face of my Father in heaven. [11] a 11a“What do you think? If a man owns a hundred sheep, and one of them wanders away, will he not leave the ninety-nine on the hills and go to look for the one that wandered off? 12And if he finds it, truly I tell you, he is happier about that one sheep than about the ninety-nine that did not wander off. 13In the same way your Father in heaven is not willing that any of these little ones should perish.

Dealing With Sin in the Church

14“Truly I tell you, whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven.

15Again, truly I tell you that if two of you on earth agree about anything they ask for, it will be done for them by my Father in heaven. 16For where two or three gather in my name, there am I with them.”

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

21Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, how many times shall I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me?” 22And Jesus said to him, “If you have the faith to forgive, all sins will be forgiven those who believe in me — to stumble, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to enter life maimed or crippled than to have two hands or two feet and be thrown into eternal fire.

18:3 The evangelism of children must be a priority for home and church. Jesus used children as illustrations of the faith (trust in and loyalty to) and humility (putting oneself under God’s authority) required to become part of his kingdom. Though God has gifted some with special abilities to teach children, all believers have the assignment to live a godly life before them, tell them about the Lord and love them (Dt 6; Mt 19:14; Eph 6:4; Titus 2:4). The gospel is to be given to all, and a response is required by all who are old enough to know the difference between right and wrong (Mt 28:19–20). Nowhere in Scripture is there the suggestion that children are incapable of responding to God or of engaging in praise, worship, prayer and Thanksgiving. In fact, Jesus emphasized that, in coming to the Father, children are not required to become like adults, but rather, adults are to become as children.

18:8–9 Jesus was not advocating physical mutilation; the body is not responsible for sin. Lust begins in the heart as does pride (see Mt 5:29–30). Believers are to cut out of their lives anything that causes them or others to sin.

18:10 Guardian angels are not promised for each child, although Scripture does teach that angels are concerned about believers and minister to them (see Ps 91:11; Heb 1:14).

18:21 Rabbinical tradition taught a repeated sin should be forgiven three times, but on the fourth, there was to be no forgiveness. Peter probably thought he was being generous to forgive “seven times.” Jesus’ answer suggested forgiving an unlimited number of times. He amplified that answer in aparable. The comparison of the debt owed the king and the debt owed the servant is almost ridiculous. The picture is clear: God has forgiven believers an immense debt; they dare not refuse to forgive others for small offenses. The lack of forgiveness is another subtle form of playing god and puts believers in direct opposition to God. Those who are forgiven must forgive if they are to receive forgiveness (see Ps 51; Lk 17, Forgiveness; chart, Your Path to Freedom).
begged him, ‘Be patient with me, and I will pay it back.’

30 "But he refused. Instead, he went off and had the man thrown into prison until he could pay the debt.

31 When the other servants saw what had happened, they were outraged and went and told their master everything that had happened.

32 Then the master called the servant in. 'You wicked servant,' he said, 'I canceled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. 33 Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?'

34 In anger his master handed him over to the jailers to be tortured, until he should pay back all he owed.

35 This is how my heavenly Father will treat each of you unless you forgive your brother or sister from your heart."

Jesus reminded the Pharisees of the greatest commandments—to love the Lord and love your neighbor (Mt 22:37–40). The desire of God is for his children to live in harmony. Christians are to resolve conflict with others by replacing discord with love. The emphasis is not punitive but redemptive (see 2Co 2:5–11; 2Th 3:14–15).

See also 1Jn 3:10–18; notes on Communication (Pr 15); Conflict (SS 5); Forgiveness (Ps 51; Lk 17); Marriage (Ge 2; 2Sa 6; Pr 5; Hos 2; Am 3; 2Co 13; Heb 12).
19 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he left Galilee and went into the region of Judea to the other side of the Jordan. 2 Large crowds followed him, and he healed them there.

3 Some Pharisees came to him to test him. They asked, “Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any and every reason?”

4 “Haven’t you read, ’that at the beginning the Creator made them male and female,’
5 and said, ‘For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh’? 6 So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

7 “Why then,” they asked, “did Moses command that a man give his wife a certificate of divorce and send her away?”

8 Jesus replied, “Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because your hearts were hard. But it was not this way from the beginning. 9 I tell you that anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another woman commits adultery.”

10 The disciples said to him, “If this is the situation between a husband and wife, it is better not to marry.”

11 Jesus replied, “Not everyone can accept this word, but only those to whom it has been given. 12 For there are eunuchs who were born that way, and there are eunuchs who have been made eunuchs by others—and there are those who choose to live like eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The one who can accept this should accept it.”

13 Then people brought little children to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples rebuked them.

14 Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these.”

15 When he had placed his hands on them, he went on from there.

The Rich and the Kingdom of God

16 Just then a man came up to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to get eternal life?”

17 “Why do you ask me about what is good?” Jesus replied. “There is only One who is good. If you want to enter life, keep the commandments.”

18 “Which ones?” he inquired.

Jesus replied, “You shall not murder, you shall not commit adultery, you shall not steal, you shall not give false testimony, 19 honor your father and mother,” and ‘love your neighbor as yourself.’

20 “All these I have kept,” the young man said. “What do I still lack?”

21 Jesus answered, “If you want to be perfect, go, sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, follow me.”

22 When the young man heard this, he went away sad, because he had great wealth.

23 Then Jesus said to his disciples, “Truly I tell you, it is hard for someone who is rich to enter the kingdom of heaven. 24 Again I tell you,”

19:9 Sexual immorality (Gk. porneia) is a broad term, referring to a wide range of illicit sexual practices. The presupposition here is that immorality breaks the one-flesh union, which God declared to be part of the marriage relationship. For some, such a violation is a legitimate reason for divorce. However, Jesus was not requiring divorce, even in this case; he was simply noting that Moses gave this permission clause (Dt 24:1–4) because their “hearts were hard” (Mt 19:8).

19:10–11 Jesus was not condemning either marriage or single life but rather pointing out that both had advantages. Singleness may mean more time for kingdom work, but not everyone can handle single life (see Ps 62; Jn 2; 1Co 7:12, Singleness)

19:12 The reference is not to physical castration, but to God-directed, self-imposed celibacy (see 1Co 7, Celibacy).

19:13 Customarily children were brought to rabbis and elders for blessing. The disciples appeared to be rude and thoughtless, especially in the light of Jesus’ recent teaching (Mt 18:2–6). They may have been annoyed that their private discussion with the Lord was interrupted by the seeming triviality of blessing children.

19:16–22 Luke identified this man as a ruler (Lk 18:18). The ruler’s question revealed his problem. He wanted to know what to do to earn eternal life. Jesus’ emphasis was always on the attitude of the heart, not on deeds. Jesus showed the young man that he had failed, even in the areas in which he thought he had done well. His wealth was not his problem; his divided heart was (see Mt 6:24). The vital message Jesus gave the man was not “Go, sell your possessions,” but “Come, follow Me” (see Mt 5:29–30; 16:15; 17:9; 18:8–9).

19:23–26 Jesus was not condemning wealthy people. For example, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, David, Solomon and Joseph of Arimathea were wealthy. But the Jews often interpreted wealth as a sign of God’s blessing in the sense of a sure ticket to heaven. Instead, Jesus saw the dangers inherent in wealth and taught that only a few, with God’s help (v. 26), could handle wealth properly. The camel was the largest animal commonly seen, and the eye of a needle was the smallest opening. Jesus used a figure of speech that demonstrated the dangers of wealth.

26 Jesus looked at them and said, “With man this is impossible, but with God all things are possible.”

27 Peter answered him, “We have left everything to follow you! What then will there be for us?”
Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, at the renewal of all things, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields for my sake will receive a hundred times as much and will inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first.

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard. He agreed to pay them a denarius for the day and sent them into his vineyard.

About nine in the morning he went out and saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing. He told them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.’ So they went.

He went out again about noon and about three in the afternoon and did the same thing. About five in the afternoon he went out and found still others standing around. He asked them, ‘Why have you been standing here all day long doing nothing?’

‘Because no one has hired us,’ they answered.

‘He said to them, ‘You also go and work in my vineyard.’

When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last ones hired and going on to the first.’

The workers who were hired about five in the afternoon came and each received a denarius. So when those came who were hired first, they expected to receive more. But each one of them also received a denarius. When they received it, they began to grumble against the landowner. These who were hired last worked only one hour,’ they said, ‘and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the work and the heat of the day.’

But he answered one of them, ‘I am not being unfair to you, friend. Didn’t you agree to work for a denarius? Take your pay and go. I want to give the one who was hired last the same as I gave you. Don’t I have the right to do what I want with my own money? Or are you envious because I am generous?’

So the last will be first, and the first will be last.”

Jesus Predicts His Death a Third Time

Now Jesus was going up to Jerusalem. On the way, he took the Twelve aside and said to them, “We are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and the teachers of the law. They will condemn him to death and will hand him over to the Gentiles to be mocked and flogged and crucified. On the third day he will be raised to life!”

A Mother’s Request

Then the mother of Zebedee’s sons came to Jesus with her sons and, kneeling down, asked a favor of him.

“What is it you want?” he asked.

a 29 Some manuscripts do not have or wife.

b 2 A denarius was the usual daily wage of a day laborer.

19:28–29 Whether or not the 12 disciples would have a special assignment of judging Israel because of Israel’s rejection of the Messiah is not clear. Jesus elsewhere said all his followers would have a part in judging (Lk 22:30; 1Co 6:2). Clearly, all who have responded to his call to follow him will receive not only eternal life but also a hundred times as much as what they left.

20:1 The parable of the laborers is found only in Matthew. Jesus illustrated why and how the last can become the first. Everything God has done for humanity is grace; individuals do not earn his favor, and he is never in their debt. God is sovereign—he is in charge. Rank, position and reward are his to give to whomever He chooses. This parable illustrates two other points: God’s concern with far more than the amount of work done; the people’s anger with God because he is viewed as generous with others while only being fair with them.

20:20–24 A few days before Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem, Zebedee’s wife made a request for her sons James and John. Though her request suggested dangerous ambition on her part, the angry response of the other ten disciples was also unwise and reflected similar self-interest. “The cup” was a com-
When Jesus taught his disciples, the mother of James and John listened with pride in her two sons. Naturally talented and dedicated to the Lord, they were included in Jesus’ inner circle. James was a born leader (see Ac 12:17; 15:13). John was commonly called the disciple “whom Jesus loved” (see Jn 13:23).

This mother’s pride also included human (as opposed to godly) ambition, and she knelt before Jesus, requesting special favors (Mt 20:21). Three times Jesus had foretold that he would be condemned to death, then rise the third day; yet at the crucifixion, most of his disciples deserted him, proving that they had heard him selectively. They heard only the promise that his followers would sit on thrones (Mt 19:28).

James and John may have urged their mother to speak, but neither they nor their mother understood the basic requirements for spiritual responsibility. Jesus listened to her request, but he posed his question to her sons (see also Mk 10:36). “You don’t know what you are asking. Can you drink the cup that I am going to drink?” (Mt 20:22). They assured him that they could, and Jesus proceeded to teach them and their mother elementary truths about servant leadership. Jesus did not reject this mother’s request for her sons, but rather he corrected it in an unexpected way (vv. 23,26).

This woman, who undoubtedly loved the Lord passionately, having joined the women who attended him, is thought to be Salome (not to be confused with Salome, the daughter of Herodias; see Mk 15:40). She followed Jesus to the cross and to the grave. Her highest fulfillment was to give her two sons to Christ, and the influence of a godly mother is certainly evident in these sons. But like many believers, she failed to grasp the essence of greatness—true humility. To follow him is to take up one’s own cross (see Lk 9:23–24). Salome teaches us the importance of imitating Christ who “did not come to be served, but to serve” (Mk 10:45).

See also Mt 27:56; Mk 10:35–45; 15:40; 16:1; notes on Favoritism (Pr 28); Motherhood (1Sa 1).

When the ten heard about this, they were indignant with the two brothers. Jesus called them together and said, “You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant— just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”
Two Blind Men Receive Sight

29 As Jesus and his disciples were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him. 30 Two blind men were sitting by the roadside, and when they heard that Jesus was going by, they shouted, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!” 31 The crowd rebuked them and told them to be quiet, but they shouted all the louder, “Lord, Son of David, have mercy on us!” 32 Jesus stopped and called them. “What do you want me to do for you?” he asked. 33 “Lord,” they answered, “we want our sight.” 34 Jesus had compassion on them and touched their eyes. Immediately they received their sight and followed him.

Jesus Comes to Jerusalem as King

21 As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, 3 saying to them, “Go to the village ahead of you, and at once you will find a donkey tied there, with her colt by her. Untie them and bring them to me. 4 If anyone says anything to you, say that the Lord needs them, and he will send them right away.” 5 This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

5 “Say to Daughter Zion, ‘See, your king comes to you, gentle and riding on a donkey, and on a colt, the foal of a donkey.’ ” 6

6 The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. 7 They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. 8 A large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. 9 The crowds that went ahead of him and those that followed shouted, “Hosanna b to the Son of David!” “Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!” 10 “Hosanna b in the highest heaven!” 11 When Jesus entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred and asked, “Who is this?” 12 The crowds answered, “This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

Jesus Curses a Fig Tree

18 Early in the morning, as Jesus was on his way back to the city, he was hungry. 19 Seeing 21:5 Jesus’ entry into Jerusalem is the culmination of the offering of the kingdom by Jesus (see Mk 11:2–8, note).

21:9 See Mk 11:9, note.

21:12–13 When people came to worship at the temple, they needed animal sacrifices, wood, oil and other items. Stalls were set up at the temple to sell these necessities, but since these objects sold for temple currency, the people needed to exchange their money. The temple, designed as a house of prayer, had become a marketplace where money changing and bargaining took place.

21:18–19 The tree looked like it was bearing figs, but no fruit was there. Just as in Jesus’ cleansing of the temple, his striking of the tree indicated the imminence of judgment. This miracle of destruction could be understood as an illustrated parable or teaching device. In this case, the fig tree represented Israel (see Hos 9:10; Na 3:12; Zec 10:2). The tree with its leaves had the marks of fruitfulness, but it bore no fruit. Israel was likewise practicing hypocrisy (Mk 7:6), and for this reason the nation was in line for judgment. Jesus might also have been illustrating religious hypocrites like the ones he had just thrown out of the temple (Mt 6:2,5,16; 7:5; 15:7–8; 21:18).

a fig tree by the road, he went up to it but found nothing on it except leaves. Then he said to it, “May you never bear fruit again!” Immediately the tree withered.

20 When the disciples saw this, they were amazed. “How did the fig tree wither so quickly?” they asked.

21 Jesus replied, “Truly I tell you, if you have faith and do not doubt, not only can you do what was done to the fig tree, but also you can say to this mountain, ‘Go, throw yourself into the sea,’ and it will be done. 22 If you believe, you will receive whatever you ask for in prayer.”

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

23 Jesus entered the temple courts, and, while he was teaching, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him. “By what authority are you doing these things?”
they asked, “And who gave you this authority?”

24 Jesus replied, “I will also ask you one question. If you answer me, I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. John’s baptism — where did it come from? Was it from heaven, or of human origin?”

They discussed it among themselves and said, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask, ‘Then why didn’t you believe him?’ But if we say, ‘Of human origin’ — we are afraid of the people, for they all hold that John was a prophet.”

27 So they answered Jesus, “We don’t know.”

Then he said, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

The Parable of the Two Sons

28 What do you think? There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’

29 ‘I will not,’ he answered, but later he changed his mind and went.

30 Then the father went to the other son and said the same thing. He answered, ‘I will, sir,’ but he did not go.

31 “Which of the two did what his father wanted?”

“The first,” they answered.

Jesus said to them, “Truly I tell you, the tax collectors and the prostitutes are entering the kingdom of God ahead of you. John came to you to show you the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but the tax collectors and the prostitutes did. And even after you saw this, you did not repent and believe him.

The Parable of the Tenants

33 “Listen to another parable: There was a landowner who planted a vineyard. He put a wall around it, dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower. Then he rented the vineyard to some farmers and moved to another place.

34 When the harvest time approached, he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his fruit.

35 The tenants seized his servants; they beat one, killed another, and stoned a third.

36 Then he sent other servants to them, more than the first time, and the tenants treated them the same way. Last of all, he sent his son to them. ‘They will respect my son,’ he said.

38 But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him and take his inheritance.’ So they took him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him.

40 Therefore, when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?”

41 “He will bring those wretches to a wretched end,” they replied, “and he will rent the vineyard to other tenants, who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time.”

42 Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the Scriptures:

‘The stone the builders rejected has become the cornerstone; the Lord has done this, and it is marvelous in our eyes’?

43 Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.

44 Anyone who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; anyone on whom it falls will be crushed.”

45 When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard Jesus’ parables, they knew he was talking about them.

46 They looked for a way to arrest him, but they were afraid of the crowd because the people held that he was a prophet.

21:28–32 Jesus clearly applied this parable to the religious leaders confronting him. The tax collector’s status was similar to that of a prostitute in society. Jesus taught that the outcasts of society could enter his kingdom if they would repent, while those who had lived a “religious” life but would not repent were the real outcasts.

21:33–41 The components of the parable are obvious: The landowner is God; the vineyard is Israel; the vinedressers are the religious leaders; the servants are the prophets (including John the Baptist); and the son is Jesus. The vinedressers have attempted to usurp the authority of the owner and make the property their own—the essence of rebellion against God. To do so they must kill the son. Jesus had been telling his followers the leaders would kill him; here he confronted the leaders with the same message.

21:42–46 The line was clearly drawn and supported by the OT (Ps 118:22–23; Isa 28:16). To reject Jesus was and is to reject God (Ac 4:11–12).
The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

Jesus spoke to them again in parables, saying: 22“The kingdom of heaven is like a king who prepared a wedding banquet for his son. 23He sent his servants to those who had been invited to the banquet to tell them to come, but they refused to come.

4“Then he sent some more servants and said, ‘Tell those who have been invited that I have prepared my dinner: My oxen and fattened cattle have been butchered, and everything is ready. Come to the wedding banquet.’

5“But they paid no attention and went off—one to his field, another to his business. 6The rest seized his servants, mistreated them and killed them. 7The king was enraged. He sent his army and destroyed those murderers and burned their city.

8“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding banquet is ready, but those I invited did not deserve to come. 9So go to the street corners and invite the banquet anyone you find.’ 10So the servants went out into the streets and gathered all the people they could find, the bad as well as the good, and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

11“But when the king came in to see the guests, he noticed a man there who was not wearing wedding clothes. 11He asked, ‘How did you get in here without wedding clothes, friend?’ The man was speechless.

12“Then the king told the attendants, ‘Tie him hand and foot, and throw him outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

13“For many are invited, but few are chosen.”

Paying the Imperial Tax to Caesar

15Then the Pharisees went out and laid plans to trap him in his words. 16They sent their disciples to him along with the Herodians. “Teacher,” they said, “we know that you are a man of integrity and that you teach the way of God in accordance with the truth. You aren’t swayed by others, because you pay no attention to who they are. 17Tell us then, what is your opinion? Is it right to pay the imperial taxd to Caesar or not?”

18But Jesus, knowing their evil intent, said, “You hypocrites, why are you trying to trap me? 19Show me the coin used for paying the tax.” They brought him a denarius, 20and he asked them, “Whose image is this? And whose inscription?”

21“Caesar’s,” they replied.

Then he said to them, “So give back to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to God what is God’s.”

22When they heard this, they were amazed. So they left him and went away.

Marriage at the Resurrection

23That same day the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to him with a question. 24“Teacher,” they said, “Moses told us that if a man dies without having children, his brother must marry the widow and raise up offspring for him. 25Now there were seven brothers among us. The first one married and died, and since he had no children, he left his wife to his brother. 26The same thing happened to the second and third brother, right on down to the seventh. 27Finally, the woman died. 28Now then, at the resurrection, whose wife will she be of the seven, since all of them were married to her?”

29Jesus replied, “You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God. 30At the resurrection people will neither marry nor be given in marriage; they will be like the angels in heaven [Mt 22:23–29; see Isa 26:19]. Though marriage as we know it will not exist in heaven, the lack of sexual relationships will in no way hinder the heavenly happiness and fulfillment God has planned for that blessed place. In fact, all relationships will surely surpass even the most joyous pleasure of intimacy on earth.

22:17–19 The trap seemed masterful—his answer would have to support either a rebellion against Rome or a rebellion against God. He effectively diffused their trap, while addressing an issue with which the conquered Jews wrestled—paying taxes to Rome (see Mk 12:14, note).

22:22–33 The Sadducees accepted only the Torah and thus rejected the resurrection, which is not mentioned in the Pentateuch (Ac 2:23; see chart, Jewish Sects). By appealing to levirate marriage (Mt 22:25–27; see Dt 25:5–6, note) in which a brother marries the childless widow of his deceased brother in order to perpetuate the brother’s lineage, the Sadducees created a hypothetical worst-case scenario to entrap Jesus. Jesus pointed to their misunderstanding of God’s power and ignorance of Scripture and its teaching on the resurrection (Mt 22:29; see Isa 26:19). Though marriage as we know it will not exist in heaven, the lack of sexual relationships will in no way hinder the heavenly happiness and fulfillment God has planned for that blessed place. In fact, all relationships will surely surpass even the most joyous pleasure of intimacy on earth.
will be like the angels in heaven. But about the resurrection of the dead—have you not read what God said to you? [32] I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.” He is not the God of the dead but of the living.”

When the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

The Greatest Commandment

Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees gathered together. [33] One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: [34] “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?”

Jesus replied: “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’[b] This is the first and greatest commandment. [35] And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’[c] All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

23 Then Jesus said to the crowds and to his disciples: [2] “The teachers of the law and the Pharisees sit in Moses’ seat. [3] So you must be careful to do everything they tell you. But do not do what they do, for they do not practice what they preach. [4] They tie up heavy, cumbersome loads and put them on other people’s shoulders, but they themselves are not willing to lift a finger to move them.

“Everything they do is done for people to see: They make their phylacteries[d] wide and the tassels on their garments long; [6] they love the place of honor at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues; [7] they love to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces and to be called ‘Rabbi’ by others. [8] But you are not to be called ‘Rabbi,’ for you have one Teacher, and you are all brothers. [9] And do not call anyone on earth ‘father,’ for you have one Father, and he is in heaven. [10] Nor are you to be called instructors, for you have one Instructor, the Messiah. [11] The greatest among you will be your servant. [12] For those who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.

THE PLEASURE OF SEX, THE COMMUNICATION OF LOVE, AND THE DESIRE FOR CHILDREN ARE UNIQUELY LINKED.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

While the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, [11] “What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?”

“The son of David,” they replied. [12] He said to them, “How is it then that David, speaking by the Spirit, calls him ‘Lord’? For he says, ‘The Lord said to my Lord: “Sit at my right hand until I put your enemies under your feet.”’[d]

If then David calls him ‘Lord,’ how can he be his son?” [14] No one could say a word in reply, and from that day on no one dared to ask him any more questions.

A Warning Against Hypocrisy

23:5 Phylacteries were leather boxes containing Scripture. They were worn by Jewish men during prayer time on the arm or the forehead. Biblical commands were written on small scrolls and placed in the OT frontlets or NT phylacteries (Ex 13:9,16; Dt 6:5). The Pharisees and scribes made their phylacteries showpieces, drawing attention to their supposed adherence to Scripture.
Seven Woes on the Teachers of the Law and the Pharisees

13“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You shut the door of the kingdom of heaven in people’s faces. You yourselves do not enter, nor will you let those enter who are trying to.\[a\]
14“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You travel over land and sea to win a single convert, and when you have succeeded, you make them twice as much a child of hell as you are.
15“Woe to you, blind guides! You say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but anyone who swears by the gold of the temple is bound by that oath.’ 16You blind fools! Which is greater: the gold, or the temple that makes the gift sacred? 17You also say, ‘If anyone swears by the altar, it means nothing; but anyone who swears by the gift on the altar is bound by that oath.’ 18You blind men! Which is greater: the gift, or the altar that makes the gift sacred? 19Therefore, anyone who swears by the altar swears by it and by everything on it. 20And anyone who swears by the temple swears by it and by the one who dwells in it. 21And anyone who swears by heaven swears by God’s throne and by the one who sits on it.
22“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You give a tenth of your spices — mint, dill and cumin. But you have neglected the more important matters of the law — justice, mercy and faithfulness. You should have practiced the latter, without neglecting the former. 23You blind guides! You strain out a gnat but swallow a camel.
24“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are full of greed and self-indulgence. 25Blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, and then the outside also will be clean.
26“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You are like white-washed tombs, which look beautiful on the outside but on the inside are full of the bones of the dead and everything unclean. 27In the same way, on the outside you appear to people as righteous but on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and wickedness.
28“Woe to you, teachers of the law and Pharisees, you hypocrites! You build tombs for the prophets and decorate the graves of the righteous. 29And you say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our ancestors, we would not have taken part with them in shedding the blood of the prophets.’ 30So you testify against yourselves that you are the descendants of those who murdered the prophets. 31Go ahead, then, and complete what your ancestors started!
32“Woe to you, snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?
33“Woe to you, Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing. 34Look, your house is left to you desolate. 35For I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.’”

The Destruction of the Temple and Signs of the End Times

24 Jesus left the temple and was walking away when his disciples came up to him to call his attention to its buildings. \[b\]“Do you see all these things?” he asked. “Truly I tell you, not one stone here will be left on another; every one will be thrown down.”

23:13–36 Jesus pronounced seven woes, condemning the rejection of the kingdom, false teaching of Scripture, attempts at purification, and attitudes toward the prophets God had sent. Jesus’ language had been strong and pointed. Nevertheless, his heart ached over the situation, and he yearned to forgive and heal (v. 37).

24:1–2 The destruction of the temple was literally fulfilled in AD 70 when the Romans destroyed Jerusalem.

\[a\] Some manuscripts include here words similar to Mark 12:40 and Luke 20:47.
\[b\] 39 Psalm 118:26
As Jesus was sitting on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately. “Tell us,” they said, “when will this happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?”

Jesus answered: “Watch out that no one deceives you. For many will come in my name, claiming, ‘I am the Messiah,’ and will deceive many. You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.21There will be famines and earthquakes in various places.22All these are the beginning of birth pains.”

“Then you will be handed over to be persecuted and put to death, and you will be hated by all nations because of me:23At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people.24Because of the increase of wickedness, the love of most will grow cold;25but the one who stands firm to the end will be saved.26And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come.

“So when you see standing in the holy place ‘the abomination that causes desolation,’27spoken of through the prophet Daniel—let the reader understand—then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.28Let no one on the house top go down to take anything out of the house.29Let no one in the field go back to get their cloak.30How dreadful it will be in those days for pregnant women and nursing mothers!

Pray that your flight will not take place in winter or on the Sabbath.31For then there will be great distress, unequaled from the beginning of the world until now—and never to be equaled again.

“If those days had not been cut short, no one would survive, but for the sake of the elect those days will be shortened.33At that time if anyone says to you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or, ‘There he is!’ do not believe it.34For false messiahs and false prophets will appear and perform great signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect.35See, I have told you ahead of time.

“So if anyone tells you, ‘There he is, out in the wilderness,’ do not go out; or, ‘Here he is, in the inner rooms,’ do not believe it.37For as lightning that comes from the east is visible even in the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man.38Wherever there is a carcass, there the vultures will gather.

“Immediately after the distress of those days39‘the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light; the stars will fall from the sky, and the heavenly bodies will be shaken.’

Then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven. And then all the peoples of the earth will mourn when they see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.40And when they see him coming in the clouds of heaven, they will worship him then and do obeisance.41Then he will send his angel ahead of him, and when his angel comes, he will open the heavens above him, and the King of glory will come with his holy ones.”

And when the Son of Man comes in his power and great glory, then he will sit on his throne of glory.42And before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats.43Then he will place the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.44Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world.

MATTHEW 24:3

24:3 The disciples knew that Jesus was the Messiah (Mt 16:16–20), the temple would be destroyed and the kingdom was coming (Mt 20:20–28). Since they did not understand other events must also occur—Jesus’ crucifixion and death—they might have thought the events Jesus mentioned would all happen soon. Jesus told them they would see some of these things happen in a comparatively short time (persecution, abomination at the temple, destruction of Jerusalem and the temple), but he also made it clear that there would be a time lapse before it all came to pass. The events described obviously demanded a longer period to transpire: the coming of false prophets, wars and rumors of wars, kingdom rising against kingdom, famine, earthquakes, and the extension of the gospel to the entire world before the kingdom would come literally. The emphasis then would be upon the necessity of faith and obedience even in times of suffering and sorrow rather than on a timetable of events.

24:4–14 Jesus described the overall future of the world that would include natural disasters, persecution, false prophets, hatred of Christians, betrayal, defection, lawlessness and lack of love. The gospel would be spread despite all this.

24:15 The abomination of desolation prophesied by the prophet Daniel (Da 9:27; 11:31; 12:11) is a good example of a prophecy with more than one fulfillment. The term refers to the defilement of the temple, especially the altar of sacrifice. The altar was a picture of the sacrifice of Christ as the only atonement for sin. The “abomination” would cast aside what represented Christ and offer sacrifices to other gods. In 168 BC Antiochus Epiphanes sacked the temple, erected a statue to Zeus above the altar, and sacrificed swine (unclean animals). Jesus predicted that similar events would happen again.

24:16–28 Jesus described events that would occur in Jerusalem in the future. There would be a great tribulation before he would come to set up his physical kingdom (see Rev 6; chart, Millennial Views).

24:30 Jesus’ incarnation was relatively quiet and uneventful. Only a few witnessed the unusual events: Mary and Joseph had angelic visits; a group of shepherds heard an angelic choir; wise men from another nation saw a phenomenal star. Jesus came as the Lamb of God to make peace between God and man. When he would come again to set up his kingdom, heaven and earth would dramatically announce him, and all would of Man coming on the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory.\textsuperscript{a} And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.

\textsuperscript{32}Now learn this lesson from the fig tree: As soon as its twigs get tender and its leaves come out, you know that summer is near.

\textsuperscript{33}Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it\textsuperscript{b} is near, right at the door.\textsuperscript{34}Truly I tell you, this generation will certainly not pass away until all these things have happened.\textsuperscript{35}Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away.

The Day and Hour Unknown

\textsuperscript{36}But about that day or hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son,\textsuperscript{c} but only the Father.\textsuperscript{37}As it was in the days of Noah, so it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.\textsuperscript{38}For in the days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, up to the day Noah entered the ark;\textsuperscript{39}and they knew nothing about what would happen until the flood came and took them all away. That is how it will be at the coming of the Son of Man.\textsuperscript{40}Two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.\textsuperscript{41}Two women will be grinding with a hand mill; one will be taken and the other left.

\textsuperscript{42}Therefore keep watch, because you do not know on what day your Lord will come.\textsuperscript{43}But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into.\textsuperscript{44}So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him.

\textsuperscript{45}Who then is the faithful and wise servant, whom the master has put in charge of the servants in his household to give them their food at the proper time?\textsuperscript{46}It will be good for that servant whose master finds him doing so when he returns.\textsuperscript{47}Truly I tell you, he will put him in charge of all his possessions.\textsuperscript{48}But suppose that servant is wicked and says to himself, ‘My master is staying away a long time,’\textsuperscript{49}and he then begins to beat his fellow servants and to eat and drink with drunkards.\textsuperscript{50}The master of that servant will come on a day when he does not expect him and at an hour he is not aware of.

\textsuperscript{51}He will cut him to pieces and assign him a place with the hypocrites, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

25 At that time the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.\textsuperscript{2}Five of them were foolish and five were wise.\textsuperscript{3}The foolish ones took their lamps but did not take any oil with them.\textsuperscript{4}The wise ones, however, took oil in jars along with their lamps.\textsuperscript{5}The bridegroom was a long time in coming, and they all became drowsy and fell asleep.

6“At midnight the cry rang out: ‘Here’s the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!’

7“Then all the virgins woke up and trimmed their lamps.\textsuperscript{8}The foolish ones said to the wise, ‘Give us some of your oil; our lamps are going out.’

9“No,” they replied, “there may not be enough for both us and you. Instead, go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

10“But while they were on their way to buy...
The Wise and Foolish Virgins

As part of the Olivet Discourse, Jesus told several parables about the importance of being prepared for his return. For example, he pointed out that his coming would be unexpected (Mt 24:42–44) and that his followers would need to maintain a lifestyle of faithful obedience as they wait for him (vv. 45–51).

The backdrop for Jesus’ next parable was a wedding custom of his day (Mt 25:1–13). Three events took place: the legal agreement made by the couple’s parents; the procession to the bride’s house by the bridegroom and his friends and the wedding party’s return to the bridegroom’s house; and the subsequent marriage feast. Jesus described the second phase in which the bridegroom and his party come to the bride’s home, where the bride is awaiting him with the ten virgins who are her bridesmaids. Since the time of his arrival was uncertain, perhaps even after dark, each young woman needed to have both her lamp and an extra flask of oil for it. The five wise virgins were prepared with additional oil, but the foolish ones were not. When the bridegroom suddenly arrived at midnight, the foolish virgins’ lack of preparation was exposed, and they were ultimately denied entrance to the wedding feast.

Jesus’ message is clear: his coming, like that of the bridegroom in the parable, may be delayed, and the women and men who follow him need continually to be prepared (v. 13).

See also 1Th 5:1–3; notes on Commitment (Mt 16); Spiritual Discipline (2Pe 3); Weddings (Jn 2)

As part of the Olivet Discourse, Jesus told several parables about the importance of being prepared for his return. For example, he pointed out that his coming would be unexpected (Mt 24:42–44) and that his followers would need to maintain a lifestyle of faithful obedience as they wait for him (vv. 45–51).

The parable of the bags of gold is connected to the previous parable of the ten virgins, as it illustrates how to prepare for his coming. A bag of gold would be about the amount a day laborer would need 20 years to earn (see chart, Money and Measurements in the Bible). Each person according to his own ability was expected to use what he had been given.

The one given five bags and another given two bags both used their talents and received the same reward. The person given one bag did not even try to fulfill the responsibility the master gave him. His bag was taken away; he received no reward; the relationship between him and his master was destroyed.
24 “Then the man who had received one bag of gold came. ‘Master,’ he said, ‘I knew that you are a hard man, harvesting where you have not sown and gathering where you have not scattered seed. 25 So I was afraid and went out and hid your gold in the ground. See, here is what belongs to you.’

26 “His master replied, ‘You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I have not sown and gather where I have not scattered seed? 27 Well then, you should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, so that when I returned I would have received it back with interest.

28 “So take the bag of gold from him and give it to the one who has ten bags. 29 For whoever has will be given more, and they will have an abundance. Whoever does not have, even what they have will be taken from them. 30 And throw that worthless servant outside, into the darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’

The Sheep and the Goats

31 “When the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, he will sit on his glorious throne. 32 All the nations will be gathered before him, and he will separate the people one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. 33 He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

34 “Then the King will say to those on his right, ‘Come, you who are blessed by my Father; take your inheritance, the kingdom prepared for you since the creation of the world. 35 For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36 I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me.’

37 “Then the righteous will answer him, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38 When did we see a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? 39 When did we see you sick or in prison and go to visit you?’

40 “The King will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.’

41 “Then he will say to those on his left, ‘Depart from me, you who are cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels. 42 For I was hungry and you gave me nothing to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink, 43 I was a stranger and you did not invite me in, I needed clothes and you did not clothe me, I was sick and in prison and you did not look after me.’

44 “They also will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or needing clothes or sick or in prison, and did not help you?’

45 “He will reply, ‘Truly I tell you, whatever you did not do for one of the least of these, you did not do for me.’

46 “Then they will go away to eternal punishment, but the righteous to eternal life.”

The Plot Against Jesus

When Jesus had finished saying all these things, he said to his disciples,

26 “As you know, the Passover is two days away—and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified.”

3 Then the chief priests and the elders of the people assembled in the palace of the high priest, whose name was Caiaphas, 4 and they schemed to arrest Jesus secretly and kill him. 5 “But not during the festival,” they said, “or there may be a riot among the people.”

25:31–46 The separation of the sheep and goats illustrates a truth. God knows who belongs to him (see Mt 13:24). God’s children can be detected in how they treat “the least of these brothers and sisters of mine” (Mt 25:40). Reaching out to Jesus’ brethren does not enable a person to attain salvation; that comes only through confession of Jesus (Mt 10:32). Reaching out is a result of salvation because it is a matter of responding to his love by obeying his commands.

26:1–46 The Lord’s Passion is described in this section. Jesus prepared his disciples for the trial, sentencing and crucifixion; his enemies prepared their plans for taking him; a woman prepared his body for burial; Judas prepared to betray him; and Jesus prepared himself in prayer. These events probably took place late Tuesday evening (actually Wednesday, as days ended at sunset) before his death (see chart, The Last Week in the Life of Jesus).

26:3 The chief priests and the elders of the people were the ones who tried to challenge Jesus. He had met their challenges and repeatedly defeated and unmasked them.
Jesus Anointed at Bethany

6 While Jesus was in Bethany in the home of Simon the Leper, a woman came to him with an alabaster jar of very expensive perfume, which she poured on his head as he was reclining at the table.

8 When the disciples saw this, they were indignant. “Why this waste?” they asked. 9 “This perfume could have been sold at a high price and the money given to the poor.” 10 Aware of this, Jesus said to them, “Why are you bothering this woman? She has done a beautiful thing to me. 11 The poor you will always have with you, but you will not always have me. 12 When she poured this perfume on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. 13 Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the world, what she has done will also be told, in memory of her.”

Judas Agrees to Betray Jesus

14 Then one of the Twelve—the one called Judas Iscariot—went to the chief priests 15 and asked, “What are you willing to give me if I deliver him over to you?” So they counted out for him thirty pieces of silver. 16 From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

The Last Supper

17 On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus and asked, “Where do you want us to make preparations for you to eat the Passover?” 18 He replied, “Go into the city to a certain man and tell him, ‘The Teacher says: My appointed time is near. I am going to celebrate the Passover with my disciples at your house.’” 19 So the disciples did as Jesus had directed them and prepared the Passover.

20 When evening came, Jesus was reclining at the table with the Twelve. 21 And while they were eating, he said, “Truly I tell you, one of you will betray me.” 22 They were very sad and began to say to him one after the other, “Surely you don’t mean me, Lord?” 23 Jesus replied, “The one who has dipped his hand into the bowl with me will betray me. 24 The Son of Man will go just as it is written about him. But woe to that man who betrays the Son of Man! It would be better for him if he had not been born.”

25 Then Judas, the one who would betray him, said, “Surely you don’t mean me, Rabbi?” Jesus answered, “You have said so.”

26 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, “Take and eat; this is my body.”

27 Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it, all of you. 28 This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. 29 I tell you, I will not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father’s kingdom.”

26:6–13 Two anointings took place—this one in Bethany and an earlier one in Galilee (Lk 7:36). To honor a revered rabbi in this manner was not an uncommon event. The oil was costly (about 300 denari), worth about a year’s wages (see chart, Money and Measurements in the Bible). Mary of Bethany is identified as the woman (Jn 12:1–8). Though the text does not actually say Mary fully understood that Jesus was going to die, her actions may indicate she had a better grasp of what was taking place than did the disciples. Jesus understood her act as one of devout preparation and distinguished it as something set apart from mere good works.

26:14 Judas’s motivation for betrayal is not indicated. Perhaps he was offended by Jesus’ earlier rebuke or by the finality of Jesus’ words, which indicated that he would not seek an earthly kingdom; even the money itself could have entered into consideration. In any case, Judas’s decision to betray Jesus stands in sharp contrast to Mary’s devotion.

26:15 Thirty pieces of silver was the value of a male or female slave gored to death accidentally by an ox (Ex 21:32).

26:17 The first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread was the beginning of the Passover celebration. Jews were to rid the house of all leaven and use only unleavened bread during the celebration (Lev 23:6).

26:24 Though the betrayal by one of the disciples was foretold, Judas was still personally responsible for his actions.

26:26–29 Jesus instituted the Lord’s Supper by using two symbols—bread and the fruit of the vine. The unleavened bread was a reminder of the hasty departure of God’s people from Egypt (Ex 12). Jesus gave the bread new meaning by associating it with his body, which would be broken (Mt 26:26). This object lesson pointed to his death on the cross. The original Passover ceremony used several “cups” (Ex 6:6–7). Jesus gave new meaning to the cup as well (Mt 26:28–29). It would stand for his blood, which would be shed on the cross. After his resurrection, this celebration would look back to Jesus’ death on the cross and forward to his return. The hymn would probably be from one of the Hallel psalms (see Ps 114–118; see chart, The Types of Psalms). Jesus reminded them there would be a kingdom, and he would be with them again.
30 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter’s Denial

31 Then Jesus told them, “This very night you will all fall away on account of me, for it is written:

‘I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.’

32 But after I have risen, I will go ahead of you into Galilee.”

33 Peter replied, “Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will.”

34 “Truly I tell you,” Jesus answered, “this very night, before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times.”

35 But Peter declared, “Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you.” And all the other disciples said the same.

Gethsemane

36 Then Jesus went with his disciples to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to them, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

37 He took Peter and the two sons of Zebedee along with him, and he began to be sorrowful and troubled. 38 Then he said to them, “My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death. Stay here and keep watch with me.”

39 Going a little farther, he fell with his face to the ground and prayed, “My Father, if it is possible, may this cup be taken from me. Yet not as I will, but as you will.”

40 Then he returned to his disciples and found them sleeping. “Couldn’t you men keep watch with me for one hour?” he asked Peter. 41 “Watch and pray so that you will not fall into temptation. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

42 He went away a second time and prayed, “My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to be taken away unless I drink it, may your will be done.”

43 When he came back, he again found them sleeping, because their eyes were heavy. 44 So he left them and went away once more and prayed the third time, saying the same thing.

45 Then he returned to the disciples and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? Look, the hour has come, and the Son of Man is delivered into the hands of sinners. 46 Rise! Let us go! Here comes my betrayer!”

Jesus Arrested

47 While he was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived. With him was a large crowd armed with swords and clubs, sent from the chief priests and the elders of the people. 48 Now the betrayer had arranged a signal with them: “The one I kiss is the man; arrest him.” 49 Going at once to Jesus, Judas said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed him.

50 Jesus replied, “Do what you came for, friend.”

Then the men stepped forward, seized Jesus and arrested him. 51 With that, one of Jesus’ companions reached for his sword, drew it out and struck the servant of the high priest, cutting off his ear.

52 “Put your sword back in its place,” Jesus said to him, “for all who draw the sword will die by the sword. 53 Do you think I cannot call on my Father, and he will at once put at my disposal more than twelve legions of angels? 54 But how then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that say it must happen in this way?”

55 In that hour Jesus said to the crowd, “Am I leading a rebellion, that you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day I sat in the temple courts teaching, 26:31 Jesus also referred to himself as the Shepherd who would give his life for his sheep (Jn 10:11–15; see also Zec 13:7).

26:36–44 Gethsemane (lit. “oil press”), the garden located across the Kidron on the Mount of Olives, was likely so named because of the abundance of olive trees. There, in prayer, Jesus fought his greatest battle. The intense sorrow was not primarily over the physical torture or dying, for he had been telling them for months he was willing to die (vv. 21–23). Rather, it was over needing to experience God’s “cup” of wrath. In the OT God’s cup of wrath was poured out on sinners, resulting in desolation, waste and becoming a curse (Jer 25:13–18; 49:12–13). He, the pure, sinless Son of God, would become sin, which would result in separation between himself and the Father (2Co 5:21). It was this separation that he dreaded (Mt 27:46). Because he was obedient, he experienced something no Christian would ever experience—separation from God (Ro 8:38–39).

26:47–56 A series of predictions were fulfilled: Judas betrayed him, the priests and elders seized him, and the disciples fled. The central character, of course, was Jesus. His amazing calmness and willingness to endure what faced him reflected the results of his prayer battle in the garden.
and you did not arrest me. But this has all taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

Jesus Before the Sanhedrin

Those who had arrested Jesus took him to Caiaphas the high priest, where the teachers of the law and the elders had assembled. But Peter followed him at a distance, right up to the courtyard of the high priest. He entered and sat down with the guards to see the outcome. The chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were looking for false evidence against Jesus so that they could put him to death. But they did not find any, though many false witnesses came forward.

Finally two came forward and declared, “This fellow said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God and rebuild it in three days.’” Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Are you not going to answer? What is this testimony that these men are bringing against you?” But Jesus remained silent.

The high priest said to him, “I charge you under oath by the living God: Tell us if you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

“You have said so,” Jesus replied. “But I say to all of you: From now on you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Mighty One and coming on the clouds of heaven.”

Then the high priest tore his clothes and said, “This has all taken place that the writings of the prophets might be fulfilled.” Then all the disciples deserted him and fled.

26:56–60 The chief priests, the elders and all the council would constitute the Jews’ highest court, known as the Sanhedrin. Scholars have discussed at length what parts of Jesus’ trials were illegal. For example, the proceedings took place at the high priest’s home rather than the courts; no one spoke for his defense; and the trial was at night. Whether or not these were illegal, the calling of false witnesses certainly was a travesty in legal proceedings.

said, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Look, now you have heard the blasphemy. 66What do you think?”

“He is worthy of death,” they answered.

67Then they spit in his face and struck him with their fists. Others slapped him 68and said, “Prophesy to us, Messiah. Who hit you?”

Peter Disowns Jesus

69Now Peter was sitting out in the courtyard, and a servant girl came to him. “You also were with Jesus of Galilee,” she said.

70But he denied it before them all. “I don’t know what you’re talking about,” he said.

71Then he went out to the gateway, where another servant girl saw him and said to the people there, “This fellow was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

72He denied it again, with an oath: “I don’t know the man!”

73After a little while, those standing there went up to Peter and said, “Surely you are one of them; your accent gives you away.”

74Then he began to call down curses, and he swore to them, “I don’t know the man!”

Immediately a rooster crowed. 75Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken: “Before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times.” And he went outside and wept bitterly.

Judas Hangs Himself

27Early in the morning, all the chief priests and the elders of the people made their plans how to have Jesus executed. 2So they bound him, led him away and handed him over to Pilate the governor.

3When Judas, who had betrayed him, saw that Jesus was condemned, he was seized with remorse and returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders.

4“I have sinned,” he said, “for I have betrayed innocent blood.”

“What is that to us?” they replied. “That’s your responsibility.”

5So Judas threw the money into the temple and left. Then he went away and hanged himself.
Matthew 27:6

Blood money could not be used in the treasury (Dt 23:18), so they bought a field to be used for the burial of foreigners. That is why it has been called the Field of Blood to this day. Then what was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled: “They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price set on him by the people of Israel, and they used them to buy the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”

Jesus Before Pilate

Meanwhile Jesus stood before the governor, and the governor asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

“You have said so,” Jesus replied.

When he was accused by the chief priests and the elders, he gave no answer.

Then Pilate asked him, “Don’t you hear the testimony they are bringing against you?”

But Jesus made no reply, not even to a single charge — to the great amazement of the governor.

Now it was the governor’s custom at the festival to release a prisoner chosen by the crowd. At that time they had a well-known prisoner whose name was Jesus Barabbas.

So when the crowd had gathered, Pilate asked them, “Which one do you want me to release to you: Jesus Barabbas, or Jesus who is called the Messiah?”

For he knew it was out of self-interest that they had handed Jesus over to him.

While Pilate was sitting on the judge’s seat, his wife sent him this message: “Don’t have anything to do with that innocent man, for I have suffered a great deal today in a dream because of him.”

But the chief priests and the elders persuaded the crowd to ask for Barabbas and to have Jesus executed.

him to carry the cross. They came to a place called Golgotha (which means “the place of the skull”). There they offered Jesus wine to drink, mixed with gall; but after tasting it, he refused to drink it. When they had crucified him, they divided up his clothes by casting lots. And sitting down, they kept watch over him there. Above his head they placed the written charge against him: this is Jesus, the king of the Jews.

Two rebels were crucified with him, one on his right and one on his left. Those who passed by hurled insults at him, shaking their heads and saying, “You who are going to destroy the temple and build it in three days, save yourself! Come down from the cross, if you are the Son of God!” In the same way the chief priests, the teachers of the law and the elders mocked him. “He saved others, they said, “but he can’t save himself! He’s the king of Israel! Let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. He trusts in God. Let God rescue him now if he wants him, for he said, ‘I am the Son of God.’ ” In the same way the rebels who were crucified with him also heaped insults on him.

The Death of Jesus

From noon until three in the afternoon darkness came over all the land. About three in the afternoon Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eli, Eli, a lema sabachthani?” (which means “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”).

When some of those standing there heard this, they said, “He’s calling Elijah.” Immediately one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled it with wine vinegar, put it on a staff, and offered it to Jesus to drink.

useful deterrent to those who might be entertaining thoughts of insurrection. The Jews detested this inhumane act of execution, not only for its cruelty, but because the OT clearly stated that anyone who hangs on a tree is “under God’s curse” (Dt 21:22–23). And Jesus, of course, was under God’s curse for our sins (chart, Prophecies Fulfilled at the Cross).

27:40–43 Jesus stayed on the cross because he was the Son of God obeying his Father. Had Jesus saved himself, he would not have been able to save others. The resurrection demonstrated God’s powerful work in his Son.

49 The rest said, “Now leave him alone. Let’s see if Elijah comes to save him.”
50 And when Jesus had cried out again in a loud voice, he gave up his spirit.

51 At that moment the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom. The earth shook, the rocks split and the tombs broke open. The bodies of many holy people...
The women faithfully stayed through the crucifixion and followed his body to the tomb (see chart, Women and Jesus in His Last Days).

Only a rich man could have owned ground so close to the city. Many think Joseph was a member of the Sanhedrin who had to be a man of influence in order to approach Pilate.

Mourning for a victim of a Roman execution was not allowed. The women would have had to grieve silently.

The Guard at the Tomb

The next day, the one after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. "Sir," they said, "we remember that while he was still alive that deceiving one said, ‘After three days I will rise again.’ So give the order for the tomb to be made secure until the third day. Otherwise, his disciples may come and steal the body and tell the people that he who had died was raised to life. They came out of the tombs after Jesus’ resurrection and went into the holy city and appeared to many people.

When the centurion and those with him who were guarding Jesus saw the earthquake and all that had happened, they were terrified, and exclaimed, “Surely he was the Son of God!”

Many women were there, watching from a distance. They had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for his needs. Among them were Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of Zebedee’s sons.

The Burial of Jesus

As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus. Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus’ body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him. Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.

Mary Magdalene and the other Mary were sitting there opposite the tomb.

The women, not the guards, were addressed by the angel. His first words were to quiet their fears. When Jesus walked on the water and the disciples expressed fear, he told them not to fear (Mt 14:27). Here the angel again used the person of Jesus as the reason for dismissing fear. The second thing the angel wanted to make clear was that resurrection had been raised from the dead. This last deception will be worse than the first.”

Take a guard,” Pilate answered. “Go, make the tomb as secure as you know how.” So they went and made the tomb secure by putting a seal on the stone and posting the guard.

Jesus Has Risen

After the Sabbath, at dawn on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to look at the tomb. There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow. The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men. The angel said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified. He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples: ‘He has risen from the dead and is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him.’ Now I have told you.”

So the women hurried away from the tomb, afraid yet filled with joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them. “Greetings,” he said. They came to him, clasped his feet and worshiped him. Then Jesus said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.”

The Guards’ Report

While the women were on their way, some of the guards went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened. When the chief priests had met with the elders and devised a plan, they gave the soldiers a large sum of money, telling them, “You are to say, ‘His disciples came during the night and stole him away while we were asleep.’ If this report gets to the governor, we will satisfy him and keep you out of trouble.” So the soldiers took the money and did as they were instructed. And this story has been widely circulated among the Jews to this very day.

The Great Commission

16Then the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had told them to go. 17When they saw him, they worshiped him; but some doubted. 18Then Jesus came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. 19Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.”

I LIKE TO DEFINE FORGIVENESS

AS “GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO PUNISH THE ONE WHO HAS HURT YOU.” THAT’S WHAT JESUS DID ON THE CROSS.

had taken place. No other explanation was possible. The grave was opened not to let Jesus out but to let his followers see that the tomb was empty. The angel declared Jesus would actually be seen in Galilee, just as he promised (Mt 26:32). The women who remained at the cross and followed to see where he was buried were the ones privileged to first share this earth-shattering news and the first to see and worship him. The Lord himself gave the message of the resurrection to the women to take to the disciples.

28:11–15 The guards who reported to the chief priests must have been temple police (v. 11).

28:18 The first man, Adam, was given rule over the earth in the Garden of Eden but abdicated that responsibility through his sin. In the wilderness, Satan offered Jesus that rulership, but Jesus refused (Mt 4:1–11). Jesus not only regained that rule by obedience to the Father but also was given the rule over all the heavens (see Php 2:8–11).

28:19 Jesus called his disciples to himself first, where they would learn about him, and he then would send them out. “Baptizing” and “teaching” are specified as part of the process of discipleship.

28:20 The Master closed his time on earth with the disciples with the one promise required to make all his teaching effective—his presence. He had made this promise before when he invited his followers to join in his yoke (Mt 11:28–30). “Always” has the sense here of “the whole of every day.” Jesus’ commission did not end here at the end of the gospel; it was just beginning.
