

Daily Devotional Prayers
of Peace, Joy, and Hope

Jesus Listens

SARAH YOUNG

Author of Jesus Calling®

Presented to:

---

From:

---

Date:

---

Jesus Listens

Daily Devotional Prayers
of Peace, Joy, and Hope

SARAH YOUNG

THOMAS NELSON
Since 1798

Jesus Listens

© 2021 Sarah Young

All rights reserved. No portion of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means—electronic, mechanical, photocopy, recording, scanning, or other—except for brief quotations in critical reviews or articles, without the prior written permission of the publisher.

Published in Nashville, Tennessee, by Thomas Nelson. Thomas Nelson is a registered trademark of HarperCollins Christian Publishing, Inc.

Unless otherwise noted, Scripture quotations taken from The Holy Bible, New International Version®, NIV®. Copyright © 1973, 1978, 1984, by Biblica, Inc.* Used by permission of Zondervan. All rights reserved worldwide. www.Zondervan.com. The “NIV” and “New International Version” are trademarks registered in the United States Patent and Trademark Office by Biblica, Inc.*

Scripture quotations marked AMP are taken from the Amplified® Bible (AMP). Copyright © 2015 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. www.Lockman.org

Scripture quotations marked AMPC are taken from the Amplified Bible, Classic Edition (AMPC). Copyright © 1954, 1958, 1962, 1964, 1965, 1987 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. www.Lockman.org.

Scripture quotations marked ESV are taken from the ESV® Bible (The Holy Bible, English Standard Version®). Copyright © 2001 by Crossway, a publishing ministry of Good News Publishers. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked GNT are taken from the Good News Translation in Today’s English Version—Second Edition. Copyright 1992 by American Bible Society. Used by permission.

Scripture quotations marked HCSB are taken from the Holman Christian Standard Bible®, copyright © 1999, 2000, 2002, 2003, 2009 by Holman Bible Publishers. Used by permission. HCSB® is a federally registered trademarks of Holman Bible Publishers.

Scripture quotations marked KJV are taken from the King James Version. Public domain.

Scripture quotations marked THE MESSAGE are taken from THE MESSAGE. Copyright © 1993, 2002, 2018 by Eugene H. Peterson. Used by permission of NavPress. All rights reserved. Represented by Tyndale House Publishers, a Division of Tyndale House Ministries.

Scripture quotations marked NASB are taken from the New American Standard Bible® (NASB). Copyright © 1960, 1962, 1963, 1968, 1971, 1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1995 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. www.Lockman.org

Scripture quotations marked NASB on pages vii, and 127 are taken from the New American Standard Bible® (NASB). Copyright © 1960, 1962, 1963, 1968, 1971, 1972, 1973, 1975, 1977, 1995, 2020 by The Lockman Foundation. Used by permission. www.Lockman.org.

Scripture quotations marked NET are taken from the NET Bible® copyright ©1996–2017 by Biblical Studies Press, L.L.C. <http://netbible.com>. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked NKJV are taken from the New King James Version®. Copyright © 1982 by Thomas Nelson. Used by permission. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked NLT are taken from the Holy Bible, New Living Translation. © 1996, 2004, 2015 by Tyndale House Foundation. Used by permission of Tyndale House Ministries, Carol Stream, Illinois 60188. All rights reserved.

Scripture quotations marked NLV are taken from the New Life Version © 1969, 2003 by Barbour Publishing, Inc.

The Scripture quotations marked NRSV are taken from the New Revised Standard Version Bible. Copyright © 1989 National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America. Used by permission. All rights reserved worldwide.

Scripture quotations marked TLB are taken from The Living Bible. Copyright © 1971. Used by permission of Tyndale House Publishers, a Division of Tyndale House Ministries, Carol Stream, Illinois 60188. All rights reserved.

Any internet addresses, phone numbers, or company or product information printed in this book are offered as a resource and are not intended in any way to be or to imply an endorsement by Thomas Nelson, nor does Thomas Nelson vouch for the existence, content, or services of these sites, phone numbers, companies, or products beyond the life of this book.

ISBN 978–1–4002–1558–4 (hardcover)

ISBN 978–1–4002–1560–7 (audiobook)

ISBN 978–1–4002–1559–1 (eBook)

Printed in South Korea

21 22 23 24 25 PAC 5 4 3 2 1

*I dedicate this book to Jesus—Immanuel—who is with us continually, listening to all our prayers. The Bible assures us that Jesus is able to save forever those who come to God through Him, because He always lives to intercede for us with our Father-God (Hebrews 7:25). And when we pray, the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express (Romans 8:26).
How great and glorious is our triune God!*

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I am thankful to work with such a gifted, dedicated team. Laura Minchew, my delightful publisher, shepherds my publishing so creatively and effectively. Jennifer Gott, Associate Publisher of Gift Books, works diligently and patiently to pull everything together. Kris Bearss, my faithful editor, knows my work wonderfully well and edits my writing with just the right touch. Finally, I want to thank Joey Paul, my first publisher, who came up with the idea for Jesus Listens. I'm blessed to have the help of all these talented friends!

INTRODUCTION

I love Jesus' beautiful invitation to us: "Come to Me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28 NASB). My hope is that this book, Jesus Listens, will encourage you to approach Him confidently and joyfully—finding peaceful rest in His Presence. It's such a blessing to know that Jesus listens to every one of our prayers! He loves us perfectly and is constantly caring for us, whether we're aware of His Presence with us or not.

All of my devotional books, including this one, are designed to help you grow closer to Jesus. This quest is my deepest longing—for you and for me. As you may know, I wrote my previous books from the perspective of Jesus speaking to you, the reader. But Jesus Listens is written from the vantage point of you praying to God. I hope you will not only read these prayers but make them your own—using them to guide you as you express your heartfelt longings to the Lord.

You will find prayers of peace, joy, and hope throughout this book. As I was writing, I drew on themes from Jesus Calling: Enjoying Peace in His Presence, Jesus Always: Embracing Joy in His Presence, and Jesus Today: Experience Hope Through His Presence. Other topics are also emphasized in the prayers—especially Jesus' boundless, unfailing Love for all who belong to Him.

Jesus Listens contains prayers for every day of the year. They are devotional prayers: designed to lead you into deeper, richer, more continual communion with God. These daily prayers are meant to be a starting point for your other prayers—helping you to enjoy your time with Jesus and bring all your concerns to Him.

I admit that praying doesn't come naturally to us; in fact, it is frequently viewed as a chore. Prayer certainly does require effort, but we need to remember that communicating with the Creator and Sustainer of this vast universe is an amazing privilege! Jesus' sacrificial death for our sins opened the way for us to commune freely and fully with our Father-God. The moment Jesus died, the curtain of the temple was torn in two from top to bottom (Matthew 27:51). So our unrestricted access to God in prayer is a glorious, blood-bought privilege!

I'm thankful that God uses our prayers not only to change circumstances but to change us. We bring our prayer requests to Him, trusting that He hears and He cares. As we devote time to communicating with Jesus and enjoying His Presence, we gradually become more like Him.

I consider it a wonderful privilege and responsibility to pray for readers of my books. So I commit quite a bit of time to this pursuit each morning. I've found that no matter how I feel when I first get out of bed, I feel better and stronger after spending this precious time with Jesus. And you readers can start your day feeling encouraged because you know that I'm praying for you!

One of my favorite verses about prayer is Psalm 62:8. In this psalm King David urges us to trust in God at all times and pour out our hearts to Him. Jesus knows everything in our hearts, and He longs for us to trust Him enough to open up and be real with Him in our prayers. Since He understands us completely and loves us eternally, we can safely unburden ourselves to Him. He is indeed our refuge.

The prophet Jeremiah assures us that God listens to our prayers: "You will call to Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. You will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart" (Jeremiah 29:12–13 HCSB).

While Jesus lived on this earth, He listened wonderfully well to the people around Him. I'm grateful that He continues to listen—to us! Moreover, we have the miraculous help of the Holy Spirit. As we're praying, the Spirit Himself intercedes for us with groans that words cannot express. And He who searches our hearts knows the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints in accordance with God's will (Romans 8:26–27). Our prayers may be inadequate and fragmented, but the Holy Spirit transforms them and makes them consistent with God's will.

I'm convinced that prayer is extremely important in all areas of our lives. Alfred Lord Tennyson famously wrote: “More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.” The influence of our prayers goes far beyond what we can see and comprehend.

Scripture repeatedly instructs us to pray, and Jesus taught His disciples to pray what we call the Lord’s Prayer:

Our Father in heaven,
Hallowed be Your name.
Your kingdom come.
Your will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And do not lead us into temptation,
But deliver us from the evil one.
For Yours is the kingdom and the power
and the glory forever. Amen.

Matthew 6:9–13 NKJV

I realize that unanswered prayers can be discouraging. While we’re waiting for answers, we need to trust that God hears our prayers and responds to them in ways that make perfect sense—from His infinite, all-knowing perspective. God tells us in His Word that His ways are higher than our ways, as the heavens are higher than the earth (Isaiah 55:9). Although we would love to understand more, it's often impossible for us finite creatures to fathom God's ways.

The Bible encourages us to persevere in our prayers. I've been praying for the salvation of some people for decades, and I plan to continue. I love the parable of the unjust judge versus the persistent widow. This parable teaches that we should always pray and not give up. Even though the judge didn't care about people or justice, the persistence of the widow eventually wore him down and he granted her request (Luke 18:1–8). How much more will God, who is loving and just, answer our prayers in His perfect way and timing!

We live in stressful times, and many of us struggle with anxiety. The apostle Paul's teaching in his letter to the Philippians is very practical and timely: “Do not be anxious about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus” (Philippians 4:6–7).

Instead of focusing on our problems when we're feeling anxious, we can bring everything to Jesus—our struggles and confusion, our prayers and petitions, our thanksgiving and praise. After pouring out our hearts to Him, we can ask Him to fill us with His wondrous peace. To receive this glorious gift, we need to relax in Jesus' Presence and trust Him wholeheartedly—instead of relying on our own understanding (Proverbs 3:5 NET).

Sometimes when I'm feeling stressed, I sit quietly and breathe slowly while praying, "Jesus, help me relax in Your peace." If I continue praying this way for a few moments, I invariably relax and feel calmer.

The prayers in Jesus Listens emphasize trusting Jesus and living in dependence on Him. The Bible is full of the tender directive to trust in the Lord: a crucial condition for living close to Him. The trust-emphasis in my book reflects this biblical teaching and also my personal struggle to trust God at all times—even when the world is full of uncertainties and things are not going as I'd hoped. At such times, I find it helpful and encouraging to whisper, "I trust You, Jesus; You are my Hope."

As I've spent time with Jesus and studied His Word over the years, I've come to grasp the importance of having a thankful attitude. So the theme of thankfulness appears frequently throughout this book. First Thessalonians 5:17–18 instructs us to pray continually and give thanks in all circumstances. There is power in thankful prayers! They keep our focus on Jesus' priceless promises and His perpetual Presence with us.

Recently, I wrote a personal story called "The Power of Thankful Prayers.” I’ll share part of the story here. When our two children, Stephanie and Eric, were young teenagers, they were scheduled to travel alone from Nashville, Tennessee, to Melbourne, Australia, where we were living and working as missionaries. This was a very long journey, requiring multiple changes in major airports. I was feeling anxious about their making this trip by themselves, and I was praying about it almost constantly. However, as I prayed, I was actually worrying more than I was trusting God. Eventually I realized that this kind of praying was displeasing to God—and it certainly wasn’t relieving my anxiety. So one morning I brought my concerns to Jesus and asked Him to show me a better way to pray. He taught me to change my prayer focus from voicing my concerns over and over to thanking Him for how He was answering my prayers. This change in my focus really did help me calm down. Yet little did I know the amazing adventures that were awaiting all of us! I don’t have space in this introduction to tell you the full story, but my many thankful prayers were answered in ways that seemed miraculous! The rest of this story is recorded in Jesus Calling: 365 Devotions with Real-Life Stories.

Thankfulness and praise go together extremely well. I’ve found that prayers of praise deeply refresh me—and they increase my awareness of Jesus’ Presence. Again and again throughout Scripture, we find the vital command to praise the Lord. We can joyfully obey this command because God is altogether worthy of our worship—and praising Him blesses us immensely. Our words of worship help us remember how great and glorious God is! Praising Him strengthens our confidence that the One to whom we pray is in control, even when our world feels terribly out of control.

Many years ago I went to Covenant Theological Seminary in St. Louis to get a master's degree in counseling and biblical studies. I especially enjoyed a course on the Bible's wisdom literature, and the professor was indeed very wise. From the vast array of wisdom he imparted, one simple teaching has stayed with me all these years. He shared with us his personal practice of praying "Help me, Holy Spirit" throughout the day—before answering the phone or doorbell, when engaged in an important conversation, when attempting to do something difficult, and so on. I followed my teacher's advice until this brief prayer became a part of me. Now I find myself praying it effortlessly, and it reminds me that I am not alone. The third Person of the Trinity is always available to help me!

The devotional prayers in this book are full of God's promises. To benefit from these precious promises, it's essential for you to know Jesus as your Savior. Because He is God, Jesus' death on the cross was sufficient to pay the penalty for all the sins of those who come to Him. If you have never acknowledged your sinfulness and asked Jesus to be your Savior, I urge you to do so. Whoever believes in Him will not perish but have eternal life (John 3:16). I will be backing you up with my prayers. Every day I pray that God will use my books to bring into His forever-family many readers who are not yet believers.

Finally, dear reader, I encourage you to delve into the prayers in Jesus Listens. You don't need to begin on January 1. Simply start with the prayer for today—and keep going, day by day. Remember that I will be praying for you. Most importantly, remember that Jesus is with you, listening to all your prayers.

Bountiful blessings!

Sarah Young

January

“I know what I have planned for you,” says the LORD.

“I have plans to prosper you, not to harm you. I have plans to give you a future filled with hope.”

JEREMIAH 29:11 NET

January 1

My living God,

As I begin a fresh year, I rejoice that You are continually working newness into my life. Because You are doing a new thing, I must not dwell on the past. I refuse to let last year's disappointments and failures define me or dampen my expectations. This is the day for a fresh start! I know there are no limits to Your creativity, so I anticipate some lovely surprises in this year that stretches out before me.

Lord, I receive today as a precious gift from You. I realize that the present moment is where You meet with me. This is the day that You have made. I know You have carefully prepared it for me—with tender attention to every detail. So I have good reason to rejoice and be glad in this day!

As I journey along the path of Life, I'll search for signs of Your loving Presence. I delight in finding the little blessings You sprinkle alongside my pathway—sometimes in surprising places. As I discover them, I'll thank You for each one. This keeps me close to You and helps me find Joy in my journey.

In Your blessed Name, Jesus,
Amen

ISAIAH 43:18–19; PSALM 118:24 ESV;
PSALM 16:11 NKJV

JESUS LISTENS

January 2

Beloved Jesus,

I want to be all Yours! I invite You to wean me from other dependencies. You have shown me that my security rests in You alone—not in other people, not in my circumstances.

Trying to depend only on You sometimes feels like walking on a tightrope. Yet I don't need to be afraid of falling because Your everlasting arms are a safety net underneath me.

Please help me to keep looking ahead to You, Jesus. I know that You're always before me, beckoning me on—one step at a time. As I spend quiet time with You, I can almost hear You whispering, "Follow Me, beloved."

Lord, I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate me from Your loving Presence!

In Your precious Name,
Amen

DEUTERONOMY 33:27 NKJV;
PROVERBS 16:9; ROMANS 8:38–39

January 3

Compassionate Lord,

You tell me in Your Word: “I have loved you with an everlasting Love. I have drawn you with loving-kindness.” This means that You knew me and loved me before time began! Yet for years I swam around in a sea of meaninglessness—searching for Love, hoping for Hope. All that time, You were pursuing me, ready to embrace me in Your compassionate arms.

When the time was right, You revealed Yourself to me. You lifted me out of that sea of despair and set me down on a firm foundation. Sometimes I felt naked—exposed to the revealing Light of Your Presence. So You wrapped an ermine robe around me, a robe of righteousness. You sang me a Love song whose beginning and end are veiled in eternity. You infused meaning into my mind and harmony into my heart. I want to join You in singing Your song. Please use my voice in whatever way You will, as You call people out of darkness into Your marvelous Light.

In Your brilliant Name, Jesus,
Amen

JEREMIAH 31:3; ISAIAH 61:10; 1 PETER 2:9 NKJV

January 4

All-knowing God,

I delight in the truth that I am fully known! You know absolutely everything about me, yet You love me with perfect, unfailing Love. I've spent many years searching for greater self-understanding and self-acceptance. Underlying this search is the desire to find someone who truly understands me and accepts me as I am. I've discovered that You are the Someone who can satisfy my deep-seated longing. In my relationship with You, I become more completely who I really am.

Help me to be increasingly real with You—dropping all pretenses and opening up fully to You. Search me, O God, and know my heart; try me, and know my anxious thoughts. In the Light of Your holy gaze, I can see many things I need to change. But I know You are with me in my efforts, so I won't despair. Instead, I'll rest in Your Presence, receiving Your Love that flows freely into me through my openness to You. As I take time to soak in this powerful Love, it fills up my empty spaces and overflows into joyous worship. I rejoice that I am perfectly known and forever loved!

In Your loving Name, Jesus,
Amen

1 CORINTHIANS 13:12 HCSB;
PSALM 147:11; PSALM 139:23–24 NASB