

How (not) to Save the World

Small Group Reflection Cards

These small group reflection cards are a great additional tool that can be used as a short wrap-up exercise each week.

Have the group host or a volunteer read aloud the three reflection cards that pertain to the respective session to open up a quiet personal reflection time or a closing small group conversation.

Is talking about Jesus with others difficult for you? Why or why not?

Session 2

What is your favorite way to rest?

Session 2

Who is someone that has shown you kindness?

Session 2

What's a story, whether from a person,
book or movie that has impacted you?

Session 3

Growing up, what was something you didn't like about yourself that you appreciated when you got older?

Session 3

What is something you are praying for this week?

Session 3

Who is your favorite superhero?

Session 5

What has been one of your favorite parts of this study?

Session 5

Who is someone that you admire that has never given up?

Session 5