

You fear you won't make it through.

In the pits, surrounded by steep walls and aching reminders, you wonder: Will this gray sky ever brighten? This load ever lighten?

God doesn't promise that getting through trials will be quick or painless. It wasn't for Joseph—tossed in a pit by his brothers, sold into slavery, wrongfully imprisoned, forgotten and dismissed—but his Old Testament story is in the Bible as a reminder to trust God to trump evil.
