

MARK BATTERSON

TEACHER OF PHILIPPIANS: EMBRACING JOY

Mark Batterson serves as lead pastor of National Community Church in Washington, DC, one church with multiple locations.

Mark is married to Lora and they live on Capitol Hill. They have three children.

Mark holds a Doctor of Ministry degree from Regent University.

Author of several books including the New York Times bestselling The Circle Maker.

"Prayer is the difference between the best you can do and the best that God can do."

Scan this QR Code to watch the full first session of Philipians: Embracing Joy on YouTube.

Follow his day to day at

HarperChristian Resources